CARPOOLING EFFORTS at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have been expanded to include all of Madison and St. Clair Countries and part of St. Louis. A new map has been placed on the first floor of the University Center with 29 zones outlined. Interested persons may complete a card seeking a ride or riders; the card is then placed on the board under the correct zone. Shawn Hughes is shown signing up.

Purpose of the ride-board is to assist students, faculty and staff in fighting the rising cost of gasoline and in conserving energy.

Fund crisis for sheriff

How to fit the 1980 needs of the sheriff department within the new Madison County governmental budget remains to be solved, although progress was made Thursday at a meeting of the County Board's Finance Committee.

Areas of concern include funding for operation of the new county jail, departmental salaries, and vehicle lease, purchase and maintenance.

A $15,000 figure approved by the committee for vehicle maintenance wouldn't keep 40 patrol cars on the road, much less the 70 the department has, Major Edwin Knezevich, director of administration, said.

Of the 70, 40 are owned by the county and 30 are leased; the 30 lack heavy-duty equipment.

To buy and lease vehicles, the department asked $75,000 and the committee has approved $61,180.

Knezevich said the department seeks lease or purchase of a new car for Sheriff Emil Tofant, who currently

Two weeks to file for tax exemption

The deadline is two weeks away. All Quad-City single-family home owner-occupants need to apply for partial assessment exemptions by Oct. 15 in order to obtain the exemption for the 1979 tax year (1980 collection).

A form that should be sent to one's township assessor is printed adjacent to this article on Page 1.

It may be sent to Carl Macios, assessor of Nameoki Township; Charles Lexow, assessor of Chouteau Township; Margaret Reidelberger, assessor of Venice Township (Madison-Venice area); or Von Dee Cruse, assessor of Granite City Township, depending on where the family resides.

The $1,500 assessment exemption applies only to those who own and oc-

Outlook on car frames worries Smith company

A. O. Smith Corporation expects to report a modest profit in its third 1979 quarter, helped by strong performances by agricultural subsidiaries and affiliate companies, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, said today.

Profits for the quarter, historically the low point of the year, will be down compared with 1978.

Main reason for the decline is the slowing of automobile sales, which reduced demand for full separate frames manufactured by the company's Automotive Division in Granite City and Milwaukee.

The division will report lower sales and a loss in the quarter, compared with a profit last year.

Profits at A. O. Smith Harvestore Products, a subsidiary which manufactures livestock feeding and waste handling systems, will be up

The 1980s will give Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville opportunities to expand and improve its services to the people of the region it serves, according to Earl Lazerson, acting president.

significant changes in attendance patterns, we must look realistically to a rather substantial decline in traditional student enrollment during the next decade.

"Rather than being dismayed at this prospect, we see in it opportunities." The acting president said the

Child abuse crackdown

Related article on Page 18
A statewide toll-free hotline to report child abuse and neglect will go into effect July 1, 1980, under a new anti-abuse law signed Thursday by Governor James R. Thompson.

The present area hotline number is 345-6812.

The new law empowers the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services to take custody of children promptly in life-threatening situations.

Previous laws already required that every case of suspected abuse or neglect reported on the hotline must be investigated by the DCFS within 24 hours. The number of reported cases rose from nearly 14,000 in 1977-78 to 21,000 in the July 1978-June 1979 year.

With abuse so prevalent, legislators and Gov. Thompson felt the number of people who must report such cases should be expanded and that a single reporting point should be created. Open around the clock seven days a week, the centralized office will provide an accurate statewide registry and will make possible more informed decisions on what action to take.

The new law gives Illinois "one of the most progressive child protection measures in the nation," the governor commented.

It calls for the DCFS to set up local child service units in each region, and creates a special job category (child protective service worker) for staff members who work with child abuse cases.

The law expands the definition of an abusive caretaker to include persons

Individual development is important, BPW club told

"Individual Development Night" was held last week by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

Members met for dinner at Roustos's Restaurant and heard Maxine Mullins, an educator from the Collinsville School District, discuss the BPW's Individual Development Program and the benefits which may be derived from participation. The IDP offers advantages to all women, whether or not they are employed. Mrs. Mullins said, noting that self-reliance and public speaking are among the course objectives.

She introduced four members of the Granite City club who are among those having won District 14 Speak-Off honors and competed at the state level. The four, Sylvia Wright, 1972, Shirley Adams, 1974, Lois Wetton, 1975, and Betty Robinson, 1976, participated in a panel discussion on the topic, "Abortion — Yes or No."

Two new members were inducted into the club. They are Rose Jackovich, a nurse from East St. Louis Community Hospital, and Lela Gunning.

Pauline Weir, Individual Development Program coordinator, served as dinner chairman.

Mrs. LaVelle Stephens, BPW president, announced a special dinner meeting Monday, Oct. 15, at Charlie's Restaurant.

Norma Mendoza, legislative chairman, is in charge of the program which will feature Barbara Rowe, who portrays Susan B. Anthony, the 18th Century feminist whose likeness is engraved on the new U.S. dollar coin.

Aptitude test for freshmen

All freshmen at North High last week were given the Differential Aptitude Test. Purpose of this test is to help the students recognize certain characteristics regarded as symptomatic of an individual's ability to acquire, with training, a specific knowledge or skill. It is also useful in helping counselors schedule the students, a Guidance department spokesman said. Such tests, for the most part, are prepared with little or no concern for the nature of general intelligence or mental ability. They sample narrow segments of aptitude, with the intent of predicting success in a relatively narrow field of vocational endeavor.

Included in the battery of differential aptitude tests are verbal reasoning, numerical ability, abstract reasoning, clerical speed and accuracy, mechanical reasoning, space relations, spelling and language usage.

Results of the test, in the form of a computer printout, will be returned to North in six or seven weeks.

Two copies of which the counselors will keep in their files. The other will be given to the student along with an interpretation.

Brain has its own pain killer; topic tomorrow

A new chemical discovery — suggesting the human brain produces its own morphine-like pain killer in times of stress — will be the subject of the year's first biology seminar Tuesday at SIUE.

John Holaday, a medical neuroscientist at Walter Reed Army Institute of Research in Washington, D.C., and a former associate of Dr. C. H. Li of the Salk Institute for Biological Studies at the University of California Medical Center at San Francisco, will discuss "Physiological Functions of Endorphins."

Endorphins are the group of recently discovered chemicals (named for the morphine they emulate) which researchers found can bind to the same specific receptors in the brain that morphine uses.

Michael Levy (892-3927), chairman of the SIUE department of biological sciences, said studies suggest the endorphins may be released during stress and act to reduce pain. They may also be involved in controlling mood, emotion and behavior.

The biology seminar, free and open to the public, will meet at 4 p.m. tomorrow in Science Building Room 6210. An informal reception will be held a half-hour earlier in Room 3312.

DANCE IN MADISON

The Madison Recreation Department will sponsor the first in a new series of "teen" dances beginning Wednesday from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m. at the Madison Memorial Center, Seventh and Lee streets. The band will be "Departure." Admission is $1, with a 50-cent re-entry fee. The dance will be limited to ages 13 through and including age 17.

Respect Life Week

Mayor Paul Schuler has proclaimed the week of Oct. 1-7 as Respect Life Week in Granite City.

The purpose of Respect Life Week, according to the proclamation, is to assure a collective appreciation and a mobilization of energies and efforts to insure the support of human life and human dignity by social forces.

The week will be observed by a Respect Life march, to be held Saturday, Oct. 6, at 10 a.m. The march route will begin at Granite City High School South and travel down Madison Avenue to Memorial Park, across from St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

The Rev. Jerry Harris, of St. Paul's Church of the Nazarene, will speak to the gathering in the park.

Hagnauer appointed to national county unit

Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board, has been appointed a member of the National Association of Counties (NACo) Welfare and Social Services Policy steering committee. The appointment was made by NACo President Francis B. Francois, of Prince George's County, Maryland.

NACo's 12 steering committees form the policy committees that make arm of county government throughout the country. The Welfare and Social Services Committee meets during the year to examine issues critical to county government in this area. There are recommendations on county legislative proposals are presented to county officials from across the nation at NACo's annual conference. If approved, the recommendations become part of the American County Platform. NACo's Official policy document, and are presented to the congress for action and/or adoption.

The appointment of Hagnauer is for a one-year term.

None favor ending special tax districts

Alton Telegraph — In testimony ranging from the emotional to the statistical, representatives of Illinois special taxing districts last week unanimously blasted proposed state legislation, which would consolidate the districts at the county level.

Members of the House Counties and Townships Subcommittee on Special Districts scheduled day-long hearings at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to solicit testimony on a package of bills to abolish the special districts and shift their duties to county government.

About 100 people either testified against or registered written opposition to the bills — introduced in the legislature by Rep. Douglas Kane, D-Springfield — during a morning session of the subcommittee, scheduled to hear proponents of the Kane measures, recessed minutes after it opened when no proponents appeared.

Rep. Harry Yourell, D-Oak Lawn, chairman of both the Counties and Townships Committee and the special districts subcommittee, and Rep. Everett Steele, R-Glen Carbon, were among the committee members attending the hearing.

It was the second of three scheduled around the state. More than 100 persons testified against the Kane bills several weeks ago in Wheaton. The third hearing will be held Oct. 17 in Springfield.

Evidence collected at the subcommittee will be used in part as the basis for committee deliberations on how the bills should be reported to the full house.

The Kane bills call for the reassignment and assets of special districts — including those for hospitals, fire protection, libraries, water and sanitary sewers, park and recreation, airport authorities, cemeteries and TB sanitariums — to be transferred to county or other local governments.

Under current statutes, the special districts are created by referendum and empowered to levy a tax to fund operations.

Most of the districts are governed by elected commissioners or directors.

Kane is a longtime proponent of consolidation of government units to reduce the size of government.

Critics of the bills argued, however, that shifting special district operations to the county level would result in another layer of bureaucracy, less responsiveness to the people, and fewer services in rural areas.

The critics said consolidation of special districts at the county level had not been proved to be cheaper than the current method of operation and could be more costly.

Opponents also argued that statutes creating the special districts contained provisions by which the districts could be abolished by the same electorate which created them.

Barney A. Hirsch of the Millstadt Fire Protection District, who appeared in a late-19th Century fireman's uniform to dramatize the historic tradition of volunteer fire departments, told the committee consolidation of fire districts into county operations would provoke a mass resignation of volunteer firemen.

James Sinclair, attorney for the Godfrey and Foster fire protection districts testified fire protection would lose "flexibility" if operations were shifted to the county level.

Under current statutes, he said, it is possible for a district like Godfrey to provide some fire protection to areas in Jersey County more efficiently than any Jersey County districts can because of distance and road access.

Such flexibility would not be possible under county administration, he said.

Sinclair predicted volunteer firemen would be less likely to serve on a volunteer force covering a large area like a county rather than a smaller localized area. Counties would be forced to go to all-paid firefighting forces at far greater expense, he said.

Sinclair presented a letter from Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer opposing any consolidation of firefighting at the county level.

"Madison County has neither the money nor the expertise to assume this responsibility," Hagnauer's letter said.

Sinclair called the Kane proposals "a shotgun approach to solving problems of governmental inefficiency."

James Rausch, a trustee of the Olive Fire Protection District and the Organizing Committee for Eastern

Madison County said consolidation of fire protection would result in rural areas being "shortchanged" because the county is controlled by politicians from urban areas.

Rausch complained that not enough notice had been given of the hearing and asked the legislators to return for an evening session "so that working people can have a chance to express their opinion to you."

Yourell, however, said the hearing had been amply publicized and said the large number of people who attended seemed to indicate most special taxing districts were aware of it.

Representatives of park and recreation districts, similarly, blasted another of the bills in Kane's package which would place special park districts under county supervision.

Morris Greenwood, attorney for the Roxana Park District, said the district is "vehemently opposed" to any consolidation. While the intent of the legislation might be to "streamline" government, he said, the result would be "counterproductive."

"Why should citizens of Alton or Granite City pay for parks in Roxana? Why should people in Roxana pay for parks in Granite City?" he asked. "It makes no sense to me," Greenwood said.

"All of the bills," Greenwood said of Kane's package, "involve services provided to local people. Their supervision should remain with the local taxpayer."

C. Dana Eastman, attorney for the Hayner Public Library District, testified against the Kane consolidation bill affecting library districts.

Abolishment of the special districts, Eastman said, "would remove a creative and positive influence on our communities," he said. The Kane bill did not contain any provision for funding of library services in the event the special districts' operations were transferred to the county level, and said such a transfer would "return libraries to the political arena."

Like others who testified, Eastman said county governments are not qualified to supervise library operations. "I think it is inconceivable that present county government could absorb library districts without an increase in taxes and a cutback in services."

Stanley Koziara, of the Mount Vernon Airport Authority, president of the Illinois Public Airports Association, said consolidation of ports into county government would result in "more red tape, more inefficiency."

Defending the record of airport authorities, Koziara said, "No airport authority commissioner has ever been involved in bid rigging. Can the same be said for county board members?"

Ron Smith, chairman of the Bloomington-Normal Airport Authority and the last person to testify, won applause when he told the committee, "These are bad bills; they should die the death they deserve and not even be reported out of committee."

Testifying against the entire package of bills, Sen. Sam J. Vadalabene, D-Edwardsville, said it was unfair to abolish by law special districts which had been created through referendum.

Kane's proposed legislation, Vadalabene said, would result in "less accountability and responsiveness" on the part of local government.

Each of the bills would be considered individually by the subcommittee and full Counties and Townships Committee and each would be voted on separately, Yourell said.

Kane, recognizing the potential controversy his bills might generate, had asked that a subcommittee be created to hear testimony on the bills "so as not to preempt anybody."

"Rep. Kane has done a great service for the people of Illinois," Yourell joked after the parade of witnesses had ended. "He sure knows how to get a crowd out."

Also represented among groups which sent representatives to oppose the consolidation bills were the Madison County Board, Granite City Park District and St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority.

Representatives of the state associations of the various special districts also testified against the bills.

DeMolays, mothers attend joint district meeting

DeMolays led by R. David Harley, master councilor-elect, and Mothers' club members led by Martha Simpson, president, attended The DeMolay and Mothers Club District 16 meeting at the Edwardsville Masonic Temple last week.

During the DeMolay meeting aside from district business there was a ritual floor work demonstration and the next District meeting was scheduled for Granite City on Nov. 6, Mrs. Simpson reports that they also have invited the district mothers to be their guests at the Nov. 6 meeting in the dining room of the Temple.

Other DeMolays in attendance were: Geoff Wofford, Shaun Roe, David Medley, Pat Gibbons, Bob Hebblethwaite, Rodney Jackson, Fred Trelling, Jerry Singleton, Jimmy Stuart and advisor Ellis N. Hackney Jr.

Other Mothers Club members attending were Georgia Gibbons, Lois Hebblethwaite, Mary Roe, Beverly Singleton, Mary Stuart, Ruby Sullivan and Pat Tsigolariof.

Mrs. Manolovich, 88, dies

Mrs. Minnie (Noski) Manolovich, 88, of 717 Iowa St., Madison, died following a lengthy illness at 11:50 p.m. Thursday at the Edwardsville Care Center, Edwardsville.

She had been a patient at the nursing facility since April.

Mrs. Manolovich was born in Chicago. She resided in Madison for many years.

Her husband, Joseph

Manolovich, died March 5, 1971.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Betty J.) Gudae of Madison; one son, Frank Motyka of Panama, Ill.; a brother, Eddie Noski of East St. Louis; six grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Private funeral services are taking place today. Details are given elsewhere in this issue.

Burglary at Clark

Twelve snack cakes and three large bottles of soft drinks were stolen during a burglary at the Clark service station, 2005 Madison Ave., it was discovered Thursday. A new was broken to gain entry.

The girl told officers the boy had beat her, thrown her into the group and used a screwdriver to attempt to stab her.

drives a 1964 model, and replacement by lease of 10 to 12 high-mileage, county-owned cars, eight of which have more than 130,000 miles on them.

Tofant said potential safety problems with the old autos need to be taken into account. New cars could be considered a form of insurance, he added.

Knezevich said underfunding would jeopardize the present vehicle program, which he said is saving the county money on maintenance. The alternative would be to use the proposed leased cars for more than one shift, he related.

Each patrol deputy is assigned a car for his use while on duty, and such autos are kept at the deputies' homes. It is contended that the program saves money because deputies don't have to pick up their cars in Edwardsville and return them there at the start and end of their shifts. Better protection results because less time is lost going to and from patrol areas, Knezevich reasoned.

He told the committee maintenance costs are kept at a minimum because no car is in use more than eight hours a day; he estimated that maintenance cost $39,000 in 1977, when the department had 32 new vehicles.

Auto maintenance has been budgeted at $25,000 annually for the past several years and the amount has been over-spent. Committee members said they feel maintenance hasn't been handled well in the past and should improve as the county's new maintenance garage gets on its feet.

Knezevich conceded that the $40,000 sought for maintenance "may be a little high" if the garage operates with great efficiency.

Sheriff Tofant, elected in 1978 as a reform candidate, said, "In my campaign I promised to improve rural law enforcement. I can't do it without money."

"Many have said they are seeing sheriff cars where they never saw them before. We're doing a good job because we've got the county saturated with cars."

Knezevich told committee members that budget deficiencies could put the county "back where we started" and ultimately cost the county more money for less protection.

The department requested $825,000 in salaries for the staff of the new jail, which is due to be finished late this year. The county budget covers the period from December through November.

The county board has approved a figure of $280,928 but has indicated there may be some flexibility. Knezevich said it would take $434,200 just to maintain the staff at the optimum level at the old jail; at 21, its staff is six employees short of the total needed, the department believes.

It wants a minimum of 38 people to operate the new jail. But salary needs for the jail could be cut to $650,000 if the department gets the 11 Comprehensive Employment and Training Act workers it is seeking.

The committee has learned that Illinois Power Co. thinks electricity for the new jail will cost $100,000 next year. The department sought and the committee authorized $57,500 for utilities, including the cost of water and sewer service and trash pickup as well as electric power.

Tofant pledged to do all he can to conserve power at the electrically heated and cooled facilities now being completed.

The committee cut the department's $1,409,000 request for non-jail salaries to $1,332,000. Chairman William Little said federal revenue sharing payments to the county will make up the difference.

Committee Member Homer Boothman complained that patrol cars are being used for activities other than county business.

Another budget meeting was set for 6 p.m. today.

Big drop

university will have the opportunity to improve the quality of its undergraduate education, expand continuing and adult education, and implement additional public service activities.

There will also be an opportunity for increasing the level of applied research and to support basic research vital to university programming, as well as develop a better system of cooperative interchange with community colleges and other colleges and universities, Lazerson said.

"Though we have a large number of highly qualified students, others enter with deficiencies in requisite skills," Lazerson commented. "Most have limited financial resources, with a significant number of them first generation college students who may lack the background traditionally supportive of university learning."

"Older adults comprise a substantial and growing part of the student population. Some of them are just beginning their collegiate training, others are supplementing learning undertaken in the past. The instructional mission of the institution must reflect and respond to their needs," he said.

Lazerson explained that the local campus is the only feasible university choice of a good portion of the population, who may be constrained by job and family responsibilities, and by financial limitations requiring that they work while they are going to school.

"A full range of appropriate programs must be available for them here," Lazerson asserted.

"To find that there are similar or even identical courses of study at other Illinois institutions or even at the higher tuition schools of St. Louis is informative but largely irrelevant to many of our potential students."

"It would be inappropriate to see us merely duplicating the usual offerings of other state institutions."

Pointing out some of the unique programs at SIUE, the acting president said, "Our ongoing development of academic programs suggests some of the elements of our mission which transcend local boundaries."

Specifically, he cited:

"Programs in the sciences with particular emphasis on engineering, energy and the environment; our Environmental Resources Training Center, with its statewide mandate for the instruction of potable and wastewater treatment plant operators."

"Our health programming in nursing, dental medicine and medical technology, addressing serious manpower needs of this area and of Illinois; and our extensive instructional and service activities which include field practice and internship work — supporting regional demands and impacting upon urban problems."

Recognizing that most of the students expect to enter the labor force at least temporarily at the completion of the baccalaureate education, Lazerson said, "We must plan our programming accordingly."

In addition, the university must take into account the "drop-in, drop-out" phenomenon, a situation where students work to finance the continuation of their studies, he said.

Cycle stolen

A Honda motorcycle owned by Richard Mosby, 627 Niedringhaus Ave., and parked in the back yard, was stolen between 12:30 a.m. and 5:30 a.m. Saturday, Mosby reported.

Cyclist faces eight charges

Gary T. Hayes, 22, of 5242 Lakeview Drive, Pontoon Beach, was charged with a state charge of criminal trespass to property and with seven traffic violations after police alleged chasing his motorcycle to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he allegedly hid in a building under construction.

An officer alleged seeing a motorcycle on 23rd Street cross Madison Avenue toward the medical center without license plates and the driver was not wearing eye protection.

The officer chased the cycle at a high rate of speed the wrong way on Iowa, a one-way street, until the cycle went across the parkway and through the parking lot of the former Snack Shack, it was alleged.

The chase continued as the cycle drove on the medical center lawn to the Washington Avenue entrance to the hospital where the rider dropped the bike and ran on foot north toward the construction area.

Police and hospital security personnel searched the building under construction until Hayes was found, allegedly hiding on the second floor. Hospital officials signed the criminal damage to property complaint against him. Officers also charged him with driving the wrong way on a one-way street, fleeing from police, reckless driving, failure to have valid registration, a driver's license, a city license or eye protection.

Unhurt as rifle is fired 11 times; woman assaulted

A 34-year-old Granite City man has been held since Friday afternoon and another man may be charged today in connection with the rape of a woman in her home on Rhodes Street at 3:50 a.m. Friday.

Police said the man they are holding forced the woman victim to submit to a friend of his, and then became upset with the situation, got a rifle and fired at least 11 shots around her home and near the two.

He then ran outside, stopped a police car which was arriving to investigate a report of shots being fired, and told police what was happening, it was related.

Officers took all three to the police station to take statements and investigate. There were nine bullet holes above the couch in the living room, two bullet holes in the refrigerator and a broken window through which a bullet was believed to have exited.

Small items on the kitchen table appeared to have been shattered by gunfire. Seven spent cartridges and six shell fragments were found inside the house, along with a rifle which had not been fired recently.

Police searched the area for the weapon used in the shooting and found a .30-caliber semi-automatic rifle in bushes in the next block.

They searched the man now in custody and alleged finding 13 bullets, two gun clips and a box containing 24 rifle shells. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment of an injury to a hand he said was suffered when he fell against a wall, and then was released to police custody.

The second man involved was released, pending additional investigation. Officers said they plan to review the case with the Madison County state's attorney's office early this week to determine any appropriate charges.

Hospital Notes

Among the patients admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center were:

Sept. 26—Marylee Busler, Beatrice Willmann, Goldie Marsh, Theresa Fitzgerald, Delores Sellers, Robin Gipson, all of Granite City; Opal Sipes, Madison; Bobby Ray Coleman and Shawnette C. Coleman, both of Edwardsville; Maude Miller, Collinsville; and Barbara Mancini, National City.

Thursday—Jeanie Trotts, Ann Ridings, Kathie Williams, Ernest Brown, all of Granite City; Donna Stufflebean, East St. Louis; and Terry Ulmet, of Greenville, Ill.

How to REDUCE the TAX BITE on Federal Estate Taxes.

FEDERAL ESTATE TAXES are imposed on the transfer of property. So, as a general rule, if you can reduce the number of transfers, you can reduce the taxes in your estate. Trusts will help accomplish this purpose. So if the total property you own, including life insurance and any jointly owned assets, exceeds about $147,000, you will be interested in the table shown here. It sets out the actual dollar savings possible when using Trusts.

Adjusted Gross Estate	Total Federal Estate Tax No Trust	Total Federal Estate Tax Using Trusts	Savings for Your Family
$ 200,000	$ 6,600	$ -0-	$ 6,600
300,000	37,200	-0-	37,200
400,000	68,000	13,200	54,800
500,000	113,600	42,800	70,800
1,000,000	331,401	197,600	133,801

The above figures assume that a married man dies after 1980, and where no trust is involved, he leaves the entire estate outright to his wife, who then leaves it to their children. Maximum credit for state death taxes is included.

You may have an estate tax problem. Our trust publication can tell you more about proper planning to reduce taxes in your estate. Please fill out and return this application form for your free information on saving estate taxes.

Yes, the savings can be tremendous! This is the reason we recommend that every person who has an estate subject to Federal tax should consider leaving his property in Trust for his family, instead of leaving it outright. Careful estate planning makes many other savings possible in the areas of income and gift taxes. It is just good sense to have your attorney and our Trust Department work together to custom design a Family Trust to suit your needs.

More responsive state government is goal of new civil service law

Legislation calling for the civil service reform of 25 percent of all state management positions each year across a four-year period has been approved by Governor James R. Thompson.

In a message accompanying his action, Thompson said, "House Bill 2134 enables a four-year experiment which could signal an important shift in personnel administration in Illinois."

"This bill is an experiment, an attempt to return to the original purpose of the Personnel Code which recognized the objective that principal policymakers and administrators serve at the pleasure of their governor or director."

"It is estimated that only 800 to 1,000 of the 60,000 state employees will be subject to the bill, or 1.6 percent of the work force. These employees are not totally removed from civil service protection. The bill will still protect people from short-term and improper political influence."

"Furthermore, the staggered implementation of the bill will ensure continuity in management."

"The size, pervasiveness and importance of government demands that it be made responsive to the voters and their elected officials."

"This bill, by making a governor responsible for his government, can help reinvigorate that essential element of our representative government."

"As governor, I have exercised my power to appoint, and directed my cabinet officers to hire persons on the basis of merit and dedication to public service. The bill will emphasize that focus." It goes into effect Jan. 1, 1980.

It provides:

1. The director of the Department of Personnel is required to provide an initial list of 25 percent of the employees subject to the review to each agency director on Feb. 1, 1980. Each agency head, under the law, must either terminate the incumbent or renew the term for four years.

Selection will be at random by Social Security number. 2. Management positions are those in or above grade 12 or its equivalent. Generally, this means employees whose salaries range from $21,000 a year to $50,000 a year.

3. The same review, reappointment or termination process will occur on Feb. 1, 1981, Feb. 1, 1982, and Feb. 1, 1983, with an added 25 percent of management employees to be processed each year.

4. Failure to renew the term is not grievable or appealable to the Civil Service Commission. 5. The law is automatically repealed on Jan. 1, 1984, unless extended by the General Assembly.

6. All those hired during the term of the law will be appointed initially for four-year terms.

7. Except from the measure are employees in "positions the duties and responsibilities of which are wholly professional but do not include policymaking or major administrative responsibilities."

Also exempt are "positions which have either salaries at negotiated rates, or salaries at prevailing rates."

In addition, the director of personnel may, as he deems it necessary, after "good faith negotiations" exempt employees who hold "specific positions in agencies receiving federal funds."

WHO WILL BE QUEEN? One of these Granite City High School South girls will be crowned the 1979 homecoming queen following the presentation of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" on Wednesday, Oct. 17, in the auditorium. ## Grant zoning for KC hall

An ordinance rezoning seven acres of land in the vicinity of Colonial Drive, south of West Pontoon Road, to permit construction of a new Knights of Columbus lodge and hall building, was approved by the Granite City Council last week.

The aldermen overrode the objections of several area residents who told the council that the people did not object to the KC building proposal, but did object to the R-5 rezoning which was sought by the organization.

The objectors noted the change from an R-2 zoning classification to R-5 (multiple residential) could open the door later to construction of apartments or multiple residential complexes. Homes in the area now are single-family, one-story structures.

Leo Kozen, an attorney for the Knights of Columbus, told the aldermen that the organization has acquired a 20-acre tract for its relocation project, but that R-5 rezoning was asked for only seven acres of the tract on which the new lodge and meeting hall will be built.

In approving the zoning amendment, the council concurred in a recommendation by the City Planning Commission that the new zoning be granted.

It's not too late to reseed lawn

By WAYNE SIEFERT
Area Horticulture Adviser
Early October is not too late to repair lawn dead spots or reseed areas that need the final touch.

If you are repairing dead spots or areas riddled with weeds and lawn webworms, rake out those areas to produce a seed bed. If a few bluegrass plants get raked out in the process, some of the roots and rhizomes will probably remain.

Lightly reseed the raked-out areas and rake again to cover the seed. Use expensive seed but be stingy with the amount you scatter in each area. New varieties of bluegrass have qualities of disease resistance and growth characteristics that are much better than regular bluegrass.

If a few plants can start in each reseeded area, they will spread and last to gradually take over that particular area of your lawn.

After reseeding, water thoroughly with a lawn sprinkler. Continue to water twice a week until fall rains can take over.

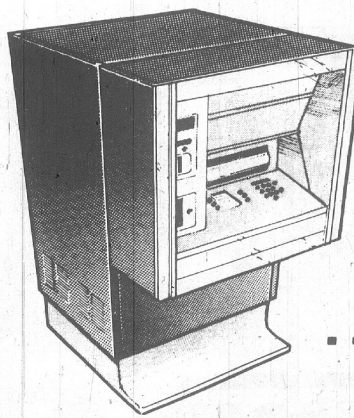

New seedlings by mid-October should be tall enough to cut before you put your mower away for the winter.

Thin spots should recover on their own if you fertilize and treat for broadleaf weeds. Extra water will get damaged turf started while your fertilizer and weed control do the rest.

COME ON, PETE.

The mule turns the press (above) while Uncle Henry (above and left photos) feeds the cane through the machine. Frank Glasgow (44 far right in the picture above) sees to it that the old-fashioned press keeps on squeezing. At the right, Frank Peterson strains the cooking sorghum while Ben Glasgow breaks out in a big grin, knowing that part of the batch is nearly done.

Making sorghum the old fashioned way

The old ways of doing things were a little slower, but some think they were better. For concentrated city folk like Ben Glasgow and his parents, the good old fashioned way is the best way.

Ben Glasgow is a Granite City man who has taken up a new hobby since his parents, Frank and Dorothy Glasgow, moved out to a farm. The Glasgows grow the cane used to make the syrup, and for Ben, the best time of the year is sorghum cooking time.

The once a year doings went on last week when Glasgow and a few of his friends went to the farm, located outside of Edwardsville, to spend the day cooking up the dark brown molasses known as sorghum.

A wagon load of cane had been cut and Pete the mule was turning the old fashioned sorghum press, a monstrous apparatus with a tree branch acting as a gigantic handle. The press is used to squeeze the syrup from the cane. Pete was hitched to the tree branch, his lead attached to a smaller branch. The mule followed the small branch around and around, causing the gears in the press to turn.

Uncle Henry Travis, in his 70s, was there to feed the cane into the press. The old man was right at home. He was helping with a chore he had done in the same way as a youngster.

There are easier ways to squeeze the cane these days, but half the fun of it, according to Glasgow, is doing it the way it was done at the turn of the century and before.

The thin green syrup, strained during the squeezing process, was poured into the coolest end of the pan. The cooking of sorghum is a gradual heating process. The syrup smells a little green as it heats, sort of like wet grass. As it is heated, it is channeled through the first hole into the next canal, moving closer to the hottest part of the stove.

The workers use old fashioned strainers to remove impurities from the cooking syrup. Several of Glasgow's friends and relatives helped, using the cooking time to visit.

As the syrup was moved through the system of canals, it began to change color. Slowly it went from green to yellow to golden brown to deep brown, thickening as it went through the color spectrum.

As the syrup moved down the pan, new raw syrup was poured into the cool end of the pan. The other end was filled with the bubbling hot sorghum, which was poured off into a bucket to cool.

The Glasgows can the sorghum and store it in a cool place. There is enough for the family and all of the friends who help make it.

"We don't make it to sell," Glasgow said. "It's just a hobby. I like to think that we are keeping the old ways alive. Besides, it's fun—a good reason for friends to get together."

Add to that reasoning the fact that the workers will have the old time goodness of country sorghum and you have a mighty productive sort of hobby.

Sometimes the modern way of doing things just isn't the same as the way it was done in the good old days. The Glasgows and their friends have discovered a new way—of having fun—using the old fashioned way.

Olympics for Maryville Cubs

Olympic competition was the featured event during the first meeting of the year of Cub Scout Pack 46 of Maryville School.

The Cubs competed in five events, which included sit ups, push ups, 50 yard dash, standing long jump and softball throw.

Top in the 10 year old division were Graig Glasgow, first, Mike Charbonnier, second, and David Allen, third.

Nine year old award recipients were Stephen Howard, first, David Gasparovic, second, and Jeff Parlon, third.

Best among the eight year olds were Greg Badger, first, Jeff Schaefer, second, and Jeff Simpson, third. First place winners from each age group are to compete at the Council level at SIUE on Oct. 6.

Cubmaster Bud Charbonnier announced a pack hike on the Lewis and Clark Trail, to be held Saturday, Sept. 29.

Fined $500

Terry L. Harris, 21, of 3877 Rodney Drive, has been sentenced by Circuit Judge Victor J. Mosele to serve one year of probation and to pay a $500 fine after Harris pleaded guilty to battery.

The charge was reduced from aggravated battery. Granite City police alleged Harris scuffled with officers at the apartment of his ex-wife, Linda Hart, 2734d Concor St., July 12. Harris and three officers were injured in the scuffle in a narrow stairway, it was reported.

Diocese plans 127 apartments for aged

The Catholic Diocese of Springfield has received the approval of the Department of Housing and Urban Development for a loan of $3,200,402 to construct 127 units of housing for elderly and handicapped in Alton, on property adjacent to the Catholic Children's Home, 1400 State St.

The loan, granted under Section 202 of the Direct Loan Program of the National Housing Act, is being made to Catholic Care Center, Inc., a corporation established in 1976 by the Springfield Diocese.

The federal loan for the Alton project is the second such loan HUD has made to the diocese. The first one was for construction of the Pope John Paul I Apartments in the near east side in Springfield. This 150-unit building is presently under construction.

In announcing HUD's approval Tuesday at Alton, Bishop Joseph A. McNicholas, bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Springfield, said, "I am delighted that HUD has again entrusted to our Catholic Care Center the construction of additional housing for senior citizens and the handicapped. 'Four years ago when I became the bishop, I expressed the hope that we, as a church, could become involved in helping to meet the housing needs of the elderly."

"Now, in both Springfield and Alton, we are moving in this direction. It is a tribute for the officers of our Catholic Care Center that the federal government allotted to us the total number of units available in the entire southern half of Illinois. May we prove worthy of this trust."

Mayor Paul Lenz of Alton expressed delight with the project and mentioned "the housing needs of our elderly citizens." Bishop McNicholas expressed his gratitude to the major for cooperation.

The building will be called Marian Heights. The loan approval is the initial step, and the date for construction can be set at the present time.

Chapter 645 honors members

Take Off Pounds Sensibly Chapter 645 named Kathi Walker best loser for August and Linda Mathis as the winner for August. Ola Singleton was honored as royalty of the week.

Chapter Leader Joan Mase presided, and earned charms were awarded to: Kathi Walker, eight-week consecutive losses.

Dana Worthen for July best loser.

Bea Stentzer for keeping a calorie chart for eight consecutive weeks.

And Cyndee Ward for vacation accomplishments. Members discussed the fall rally to be held Oct. 13 in Edwardsville.

The group meets each Monday from 6 to 8 p.m. Those interested in visiting or joining may call Joan Mase at 876-3343 or Dana Worthen at 877-3292.

Friends, for the good—and bad—times

What is more wonderful than good friends, I ask you. I am most fortunate in the friends I have, especially when you consider what an absolute delight I am.

I have to admit that my friends have to put up with some weird stuff from me. I can't seem to keep myself out of strange situations.

Take the time I showed up at my favorite watering hole and ordered lunch before I realized that I had left my money in my cigarette pouch and the pouch on the kitchen table at home. It was one of my friends who bailed me out.

Then there are all of the times when I'm bored or lonely and spend hours on the phone. I have friends who will listen to my babbling.

I'll never forget the time I got the company van stuck in what seemed to be a 90-foot snowdrift. I called on a friend who called a few dozen friends and they got me out.

I have a lot of trouble with company vehicles. One Sunday afternoon, I was on assignment and the van refused to go. I made a new friend that day when a passerby helped me get going again.

I do dumb things and often my friends will say, "Don't take that seriously. That's just the way she is." It's wonderful to have people put up with me that way.

Believe me, I try to be a good, considerate friend. I listen and try to help when I can.

But I am one of the few people I know who could even mess up Christmas. Those who call themselves friends to me are pretty special people. I want anything to do with someone who could mess up Christmas.

What can I say? My personality seems to draw disaster. I am constantly hassled and forever getting into trouble.

The people who stand by me in spite of everything are what I would have to call people of saintly dispositions. I mean, how many people could you call in the middle of the night because your bathroom convenience was stopped up?

Yes, friends are terrific and my friends are exceptional in their intestinal fortitude and all-forgiving attitudes. I love them.

All two of them.

GC must pay 'sludge' bill

Granite City council members agreed Tuesday night the city will be compelled to pay a bill of $36,595 to Milam-East Division of SCA Services for hauling treatment plant sludge to the firm's landfill during the past several months, although council members had ordered no such hauling be performed.

The bill results, aldermen were told in a regular council session Tuesday night, from a "misunderstanding" by Ernest Hubbard, acting superintendent of the city's sewage treatment plant, of orders by the City Council's pollution plant committee to discontinue hauling sludge from the plant to the SCA Services landfill after 5 p.m. each day.

The money is involved in an agreement which the city reached with Kenneth Hartbarger, director of the SCA firm in which the city agreed to pay an additional fee of $5,000 per month when it was necessary to haul sludge to the landfill after regular working hours, usually between 5 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Most aldermen agreed Tuesday night that they were under the impression that late sludge hauling (after 5 p.m.) had been discontinued after officials instructed Hubbard to discontinue such work because of the cost involved.

Two weeks ago Alderman Sam Whitmer challenged an SCA bill for $36,595 for sludge hauling and held up payment, noting there were supposed to be no additional charges unless landfill services were required after the usual 5 p.m. closing hour.

Hubbard, however, admitted to council members Tuesday night that the treatment plant has been hauling sludge to the landfill between 5 and 8 p.m.

"I guess I just misunderstood your order," Hubbard said, noting that sludge hauling has continued regularly during past months.

Alderman Glenn Sprankle, chairman of the pollution plant committee, said he had given Hubbard specific orders that there was to be no more hauling of sludge to the landfill after the 5 p.m. regular closing. He said continued sludge hauling resulting in the $36,595 bill "is a direct violation of orders."

The aldermen agreed that since the services of the landfill had been used under the agreement, the bill will have to be paid.

The $5,000 monthly which the city agreed to pay when use of the landfill was required for late sludge hauling was in excess of the city's regular payment for garbage pickups which are made for Granite City by Milam-East.

MAGAZINE SALE
Grigsby Junior High School is conducting a benefit magazine sale. All major magazines are available, according to a spokesman. Orders will be taken through Oct. 10.

2 hurt as car overturns

A father and son were injured when the southbound auto of Fritz Foschiatti, 50, of 2815 E. 25th St., went out of control on Maryville Road 600 feet north of Route 162, struck a fence and overturned at 12:20 a.m. Wednesday.

Foschiatti said he thought he heard a tire on his car blow out just before the accident. Police said skid marks indicate the car left the roadway, straddled the curb for about 300 feet, struck a city-owned fence, tearing down about 60 feet of fencing and six posts, then overturned once or twice before coming to rest on its wheels about 420 feet south of where the car first went out of control.

Foschiatti and his son, Peter Foschiatti, 13, were taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where the father was admitted for back pain and multiple abrasions to the top of his head.

Peter Foschiatti was treated for an abrasion to his right arm and was released.

Sentenced in burglary

James Stogdill, 28, of 2807 Circle Drive, has been sentenced in Madison County Circuit Court to serve 364 days in the county jail and two years of probation and to make restitution of $414 after he pleaded guilty to burglary.

Circuit Judge Harold R. Clark pronounced sentence. Stogdill was charged with entering the Taco Hut, 2888 Madison Ave., Feb. 3 with a 19-year-old woman who had been employed there and he allegedly took money from a floor safe.

The woman pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of theft, was placed on probation and was ordered to make restitution.

364 days in jail ordered

Steven M. Jones, 22, of Kaseberg Park, Pontoon Beach, has been sentenced to serve 364 days at the Vandalia Correctional Facility after pleading guilty to possessing marijuana Feb. 23.

Jones and another young man were arrested in South Roxana on a routine traffic stop and a large canvas bag containing 3,500 grams (nearly eight pounds) of marijuana was found in the bag.

Associate Judge Philip J. Rarick accepted a plea on a charge of possessing a smaller amount and pronounced sentence.

Revival at Grace Baptist

Wade Clemons of Morristown, Tenn., will lead the fall revival at Grace Baptist Church, 2600 Edwards St.

The services started here Sunday morning, Sept. 30, and continue through Sunday, Oct. 7.

Nightly meetings will begin at 7 o'clock.

The Rev. Morris Anderson, Grace Baptist pastor, said the congregation is extending an invitation to the public.

"Brother Clemons is a young dynamic speaker who will be preaching on subjects relevant to the day in which we live," the minister said.

Rev. Joyce of Litchfield, former music director at Grace Baptist Church, will be assisting the evangelist with the musical programs.

Mother, son hurt on 162

A mother and son were injured when their auto and the car of Wilton Shemwell, 3036 Nameoki Drive, collided on Route 162 a mile east of Route 111 last week.

Mrs. Sharon Cooper, 27, of 4381 Highway 162, and her 9-year-old son, Brian, were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where they were released after treatment and X-rays.

They later were admitted overnight at Belleville Memorial Hospital, friends said.

She suffered pain to her head and both arms and he complained of a headache.

Madison County sheriff's deputies were told Shemwell's eastbound auto had started to pass the Coopers' car when Mrs. Cooper braked her auto suddenly and Shemwell's auto struck the rear.

Shemwell was issued a ticket alleging failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident and Mrs. Cooper was charged with failure to use her turn signals.

Job hunting skills class

Need a job? University Placement Services will help find one through a series of free job hunting workshops beginning Tuesday at SIUE.

Placement Director David Van Horn, who will lead the sessions, said applicants will learn to analyze their skills (Oct. 2), develop a resume (Oct. 9), write letters, find demand areas and make contacts (Oct. 16) and sharpen interview tactics (Oct. 22).

Classes will meet Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the Ohio Room of the University Center except Oct. 16, when the meeting is at 1 p.m.

The complete series will be repeated on Wednesdays through November, beginning with skill analysis on Oct. 31. Additional information is available by contacting Van Horn at 692-2800.

Future secretaries hear panel

Featured at the first meeting of the new school year of the GCHS North Future Secretaries Association last week were FSA alumnae who spoke to the group about their job experiences.

Participating on the panel were Laurie Webb, Anita Wallace Wortham and Kathleen DeRuntz. "The secretaries spoke on such topics as why they like their jobs, how they got them, whether it is advisable to try to conceal errors, mistakes they have made, and the outcomes."

Faculty adviser Linda Haddox spoke to the audience, consisting of returning seniors and prospective junior members. She introduced the new officers.

Guiding the group this year are Suzanne Szadai, president; Michelle Root, vice-president; corresponding secretary, Vicki Price, recording secretary; Cindy Dorch, treasurer; and Debbie Morris and Rhonda Rea, board members-at-large.

President Szadai told the prospective members they had met the necessary qualifications for being invited to become members. Vice-President Bates introduced the panel and the moderator, Mrs. Charlie Yanovic of the Tri-Cities Chapter, National Secretaries Association, sponsors of the FSA chapter.

Those desiring to become members were advised to turn in their $5 membership fee prior to Oct. 7. The dues for returning senior members are $3. Initiation and installation of new officers will be held on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 21. FSA members will furnish the refreshments, with North High bringing cake and cookies and South members bringing punch and coffee.

Members were reminded that absence from three meetings during the school year means automatic loss of membership. In order for Plans were made for a float to be entered in the homecoming parade scheduled for Oct. 5.

Chairman of the float committee is Lisa Morris. The members filled out point sheets which will be used as a basis for selecting Miss FSA and Junior FSA award recipients at the annual banquet in May.

Next meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 23, and the program will center around versatility in ways to be fashionable, with the speaker from Miss Hickey's.

Speakers on energy

Dr. Henry Boss, associate professor at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, will direct a panel discussion on energy at the Gateway East Phi Delta Kappa meeting. It will be a breakfast meeting on Saturday, Oct. 6, at 9 a.m. at the Round Table Restaurant, Highway 157, Collinsville.

Dr. Boss, who has been at SIUE in the secondary education department since September 1963, also has experience as a high school principal for three years, superintendent of schools for four years, Assistant superintendent in charge of curriculum for six years, and 16 years at the university level.

He received his bachelor degree at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., his Ed. M.S. degree at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass., and his doctorate from Colorado State College in Greeley.

Bill Badger, assistant to the area service manager for Illinois Power Company, will be on the panel discussing the energy problem and its impact on the public schools.

Also on the panel will be Olin Stratton, superintendent of the Highland school district and currently president of the American Association of School Administrators. He has attended the 37th international conference on education in Geneva, Switzerland. Stratton will discuss the energy issue as it relates to state and national schools.

Daye Allen, director of buildings and grounds for the Alton district, will talk on daily energy matters affecting schools.

Archery deer season opens today

Archery deer hunters in Illinois will have an opportunity to pursue their sport from today through Dec. 31.

Deer hunting by archers is restricted to hunters having an archery deer permit, or a paid or free landowner's archery permit.

In all counties except Lake, Kane, Cook and DuPage—which do not have a deer firearm season—the archery season will be suspended during the two weekends of firearm hunting, Nov. 16-18 and Dec. 7-9.

Hunting hours are from one half-hour before sunrise to a half-hour before sunset. The archery bag limit is one whitetail deer per year.

Archers must use a bow with a minimum pull of 40 pounds, and broadhead, barbed arrows.

All successful bow hunters must report their harvest to the Department of Conservation within 48 hours by using the address, postage free envelope provided to all permit holders to return the mail-in portion of their permit along with the incisor teeth of their deer.

Department of Conservation Chief Forest Game Biologist Forrest Loomis, said information collected after the close of last year's season indicated that many successful hunters had not reported their success, despite the possibility of a $35 fine for hunters who fail to comply with the reporting requirement.

Last year, Illinois' 31,163 archery deer hunters bagged about 2,431 whitetails—a success rate of nearly eight percent.

Successful bowhunters made an average of about 14 hunting trips before harvesting their deer.

Despite the low success rate for hunters who stalk deer with bow-and-arrow, the sport has continued to increase in popularity over the past several years.

"There has been a tremendous increase in the popularity of the sport over the last 16 years," Loomis says.

In 1962, the state issued deer hunting permits to 3,448 bowhunters, compared to a record 31,163 archery-deer permits issued last year.

Loomis attributes part of the popularity of archery deer hunting to the challenge of the sport and to the increased popularity of compound bows, which are four times more effective for taking deer than long bows or recurved bows.

The biologist expects a small drop in the number of archery deer hunting permits issued this year, even though the number of permit holders who actually hunt may be unaffected.

To date, the state has issued 12,500 permits, compared to about 14,000 issued by this time last year.

Most archery permit applications typically are received during late September and early October.

"Because the cost for a permit is higher this year, most hunters who get a permit will use it," Loomis said.

"In years past, a lot of hunters purchased both a deer-firearm permit and a deer-archery permit. This year, they may settle in one or the other."

Car hits pole and fencing

Arnold L. Schueren, 22, of 2309 Washington Ave., was injured when his northbound car went out of control, left the roadway, broke a utility pole and knocked a wire in a fence across from Curt's Grill, 1623 Madison Ave., at 1:55 a.m. Thursday.

The fence belonged to Granite City Steel. Schueren was issued a ticket alleging careless driving.

He was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he was admitted with a cut near his left eye and pain to his head.

BACKS INTO CAR
Barry J. Gibbs, 23, of 1725 Venice Ave., was injured when he released the clutch of his car at Namecki and Pontoon Roads, believing the auto was in neutral and the auto backed into the stopped car of Richard Rustie, Troy, at 12:10 a.m. Wednesday. Gibbs suffered a bruise under his left eye and was released after treatment.

Navy Mothers discuss dinner

A discussion concerning the 22nd anniversary dinner of the Quad-City Navy Mothers Club 850 was held at the meeting last week of that group.

The dinner will be held Nov. 8 at the VFW Hall. A Christmas party was planned for Dec. 13.

Mrs. Marian Lipscomb was introduced as an honorary member.

The club donated four craft kits to be sent to hospitalized veterans in San Diego.

Glady Markovich won the mystery package and the special prize went to Norma Darnell. Other prizes were awarded to Alice Christian, Margaret Minzes, Jean Teller and Mrs. Lipscomb.

Hostess for the evening were Stella Miller and Glady Markovich. The club will have its next meeting Oct. 11 at the VFW.

Auxiliary elections to be held

The newly-formed Madison Amvets Auxiliary will hold an election of officers Tuesday.

Amvets State Auxiliary President Delores Spitz of Bartonville, Ill., will be at the meeting to conduct the election of officers.

The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. in the Amvets Post 204 building at 1242 Iowa St., Madison. A social hour and dinner will follow the organizational meeting.

Those attending will be charter members of the new group and will sign the official charter at the meeting.

STATE STREET CRASH Thursday at 7:45 near Fourth Street in Madison. A car driven by Elizabeth McGuire, 1430 Fifth St., Madison, veered to the right side of the roadway and struck the utility pole at far right, according to witnesses. A second auto, following behind, struck the rear of the McGuire car, which had come to rest blocking the northbound lane. Emergency medical technicians of the Granite City ambulance service attend the crash victim on a stretcher at the left. No one else was injured.

7-state approach to fight car thefts

Illinois is making progress against auto theft, Alan J. Dixon, secretary of state, told theft prevention experts of seven states last week at Rosemont.

Dixon addressed a Midwest regional conference on auto theft prevention, the first of its kind in the nation, held near O'Hare Airport. He organized the conference. Attending were law enforcement officials, motor vehicle law administrators, insurance executives and auto theft investigators of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan. "Last year, motor vehicle thefts dropped 4.2 percent in Illinois, from 59,440 stolen vehicles to 56,937," said Dixon.

"We are catching more thieves. In 1978, there were 8,088 arrests, a whopping 20.2 percent increase from 1977.

"But the number of arrests is only 14 percent of the number of thefts. About 86 of every 100 auto thieves make a clean getaway. Much remains to be done."

Dixon said he called the conference to create a seven-state task force to coordinate efforts so professional auto thieves cannot play one state against another.

"Some states have a state police department; others do not," he said.

"In some states, a central authority issues certificates of title. In others, the counties do it. Some states license junkyards and scrap dealers. Others don't."

"Professional thieves are well aware of these differences, and know how to take advantage of them."

"We want to drive auto thieves out of Illinois. But we don't want to drive them into your states. We want to drive them out of business."

Dixon suggested that the surrounding states study his Illinois plan of using licensing and title certifying powers of the state government as a weapon to supplement criminal prosecution of "chop shops." Illinois requires scrap yards, wreckers, auto recyclers and rebuilders, and used parts dealers to keep records of their transactions. Dixon told how he has revoked licenses of operators who failed to keep required records.

The General Assembly passed and Governor Thompson signed a law which now brings auto body shops under the record-keeping requirement.

"The same law has new ownership disclosure and investigation provisions to keep criminal elements out of licensed enterprises."

Subcommittees of the new task force will meet in October and prepare sections of a regional auto theft prevention plan to be made effective in January.

GC Steel to install new nitrogen line

Authorization to Granite City Steel to build a high-pressure line that will carry nitrogen to the main BOF plant for use as an alloy ingredient in steel processing was approved by the City Council in a regular meeting Tuesday night.

Leo Konzen, an attorney for the steel firm, told the aldermen that the line is to be built underground and that it will follow generally the path of the above-ground steam line that is now being erected between the blast furnace department and the main plant.

A spokesman at Granite City Steel said the nitrogen line will extend from Air Products Co. at 22nd Street and Monroe Avenue, will cross Highway 182 and 20th and 21st streets.

The eight-inch line will carry nitrogen to the BOF plant under pressure of 275 pounds per square inch, the spokesman said.

Conservation job openings

Charles B. Henry, Southwest regional manager of the Illinois Job Service, has announced that jobs are available in conservation projects in the southern part of Illinois as part of the Illinois Young Adult Conservation Corps.

The IYACC is available to all unemployed young men and women between 18 and 24 years of age.

Enrollees must give assurance they have not left school for the purpose of entering the program, and must have a Social Security number.

Enrollees will work five days a week, and the minimum hourly wage will be paid, based on the federal wage schedule.

These jobs are considered to be in the residential program, where enrollees will live at a facility established and maintained to provide seven days a week, 24 hours a day residential support services," Henry said.

Enrollees will pay $3 per day while at the camp for linens, rooms and meals. This will be deducted from their payroll checks.

For additional information and for referral instructions, applicants may report to their nearest Illinois Bureau of Employment Service Job Service office. Such offices are located in Granite City, Belleville, East St. Louis, Edwardsville, Fairview Heights and Alton.

"This is a good opportunity for training and work experience in various fields, such as wildlife habitat development, improvements and preservation, hiking and bike trails development and improvements," according to Henry.

Sentenced and fined in court

Michael G. Gagliano, 17, of 2633 Iowa St., has been sentenced in Madison County Circuit Court to serve 30 days in the Madison County Jail, two years of probation and to pay a $150 fine after pleading guilty to burglary.

He and a 15-year-old boy allegedly used a key to enter the Taco Hut, 2860 Madison Ave., June 25. Cabinets and drawers were opened and searched. The key was believed taken from an employee of the business who is a relative of one of the boys.

Friendly Agers to pick apples

Plans were made for an apple picking excursion at the meeting last week of the Friendly Agers.

The group met at Second Baptist Church with president Mina Duggins. Forty people attended.

Art Hoffman offered prayers. Ann Jamison and Alice Hoffman provided songs.

Evelyn Smith, Myra Grote, Ruby Mayberry and Jack Jenkins participated in a fashion show and Fanny Epstein, Naomi Roney and Florence Paul presented readings.

The Rev. Carl Watkins gave the devotional and the closing prayer. Charlie Hoffman was welcomed as a new member.

Get well cards and dinners were sent out to shut-ins.

Increases in interest can be good news. At least it can be when the "interest" in question is the kind spoken of in a recently completed survey by national researchers. They reported two-thirds of the adult population have more interest in the U.S. economic system now than a year ago. This favorable increase in interest is attributed to two factors: the present state of the economy, with both inflation and recession making the headlines; and the effect of a national advertising campaign being waged by the Ad Council. Researchers said the study shows a sharp upward increase in awareness and interest in the American economic system especially among the better educated, higher income segment of the population, as well as students, people in the West and Midwest, and the middle income group. Bottom line for the Ad Council's campaign (now going into the fourth year) is that those who learn more about the economic system in this country come to appreciate the way it works. For all its problems, nothing better has ever been devised than the free enterprise system that remains the hallmark of our economy.

Set Venice book fee, attendance policies

Two policies involving students were adopted by the Venice Board of Education at its meeting Thursday night.

One concerned textbook fees, a new practice in the Venice School District which was established following a July 21 referendum.

It was agreed that refunds will be granted on a prorated basis to students moving from the district prior to Dec. 1, with none given after that date.

Students transferring into the Venice District before Dec. 1 will be required to pay the full fee, with those joining the district after Dec. 1 paying a prorated fee.

The fee schedule in Venice, approved by the board in July, is: Pupils in kindergarten and special education programs, $8 per year; first through eighth grade students, $12 per year; and high school students, $16 annually.

A second policy statement adopted by the board requires that all students, between the ages of 17 and 21 who enroll at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center with the intention of receiving a Venice High School diploma must meet the same North Central Association class hour requirements as students in the regular high school program.

It was noted the requirements are spelled out in the Venice High School Handbook and essentially require one class hour of attendance daily for one year to earn one credit.

The board agreed to continue to allow Venice-Lincoln Technical Center to offer high school credits through proficiency testing for students 21 years and older, as soon as the VLTCC staff develops standardized tests which measure students' mastery of the course objectives listed in Project Passages Curriculum Components, 1977-78, the new policy states.

The tests must be filed with the Venice superintendent of schools and the results of tests must be available to the superintendent upon request.

The Venice High School principal was given sole responsibility for evaluating transcripts and determining the courses and hours needed to meet Venice High School and NCA requirements.

The principal also must determine when sufficient credits for VHS graduation have been earned.

The Venice High School principal was charged with responsibility of providing forms for supplying data on student attendance and grades within five days prior to the end of each six week grading period. This information will then become part of the student's high school record, the policy states.

The Venice board members also agreed to the recommendation of Venice

Supt. of Schools Robert N. Vickers that the board not permit Venice-Lincoln Technical Center to become a separate high school diploma granting institution within the Venice School District, "unless, and until, such time as this becomes a statewide practice that is set up, regulated and monitored by the Illinois Office of Education."

Vickers said the new policies agreed to by the board Thursday night were discussed at previous meetings and were formulated at the board's direction.

He said students are attending Venice-Lincoln from other school districts with the objective of securing a Venice High School diploma.

Although teachers at Venice-Lincoln are fully qualified, Vickers said, it was decided that specific time requirements, as set forth by North Central, and proficiency testing, should be carried out on a uniform basis.

The high school credits program at the adult vocational school initially was established to permit young women students who were unable to remain in regular class, due to pregnancy, to complete their high school education and gain a diploma.

GC major crimes drop 13 percent

Major crimes during August were 13 percent below the same month last year, according to figures released by Chief of Police Ronald J. Veizer.

Every category of major crime showed a decline, with the exceptions of rape and assault, the report shows. The number of rapes climbed from two in August, 1978, to three this August. Robberies were shown in robbery, down 40 percent, from five to two; burglary, down eight percent, from 46 to 42; auto burglary, down 44 percent, from 34 to 19; larceny, down 12 percent, from 130 to 114, and auto theft, down 14 percent, from 21 to 18.

Overall, there were 237 major crimes in the city in August, down 13 percent from the 273 in August, 1978. However, the number of cases solved by arrest also was down, dropping 32 percent, from 227 cases in August, 1978, to 153 in the same month of this year. The number of arrests for major crimes was down 34 percent, from 97 to 64, in the same period.

There was a seven percent decrease in overall arrests with 442 this August, down from 479 in August, 1978, but arrests for the first eight months of the year are 27 percent above the same period of the previous year with 1,155, compared to 2,832. Of those arrested during August of this year, 2,433 were for traffic offenses and 1,155 were for other violations.

The number of charges filed against those arrested climbed 30 percent, from 3,138 in the first eight months of 1978, to 4,079 in the same period of this year, the report shows.

There were 120 vehicle accidents this August, down 25 percent from the 155 in August, 1978, but there was one fatality during the report period and none in August, 1978. Of the 120 accidents during this August, 26 involved personal injuries.

Accidents in the first eight months of this year, totaling 1,331, are down six percent from the same period of the previous year when 1,423 were reported. A total of 294 persons had been injured in vehicle accidents in the city through August, down 29 percent from the 415 injured in the first eight months of 1978, according to the report. Chief Veizer noted that the police department answered 2,269 complaints during August.

Revival at Temple Baptist

Temple Baptist Church will conduct a series of revival services until Oct. 6, beginning each evening at 7:30 p.m., the Rev. Jack Guoy announced. Conducting the services which began yesterday, is the Rev. Bill Young of Granite City. Before coming to the pastorate at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Young was the director of Daybreak Evangelism. A former professional musician, Rev. Young has performed with Mac Davis and Roy Clark in addition to many nationally-known contemporary Christian musicians. Leading the music for the festival will be Phil Baker of Granite City.

FIND STREET SIGNS
Granite City police are investigating the origin of 30 street signs found inside an apartment in the 1700 block of Edison Ave., at 11:25 p.m. Tuesday. A woman moving into the apartment reported the signs were apparently left there by a former tenant. The city street department noted that 27 of the 30 signs were outdated and of no value.

September driest in 142 years

Quad-Cityans who have been commenting on the lack of rainfall during September didn't realize just how dry it really was.

The month ended yesterday without recording a single drop of rain, making it the driest September here in 142 years.

Service reported that its records show only a trace on Sept. 1. A trace is moisture too light to be recorded on weather instruments.

At the Chain of Rocks locks where weather records are maintained for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, only a trace was recorded on Sept. 2. There were no other rainfall entries during the remainder of the month. Since normal rainfall in the Quad-City area for September is 2.46 inches, the lack of any precipitation caused the area to fall below normal for the nine months of this year.

Through the month of August, the area had received 24.70 inches of rainfall, compared with a normal fall of 24.29 inches. The September records leaves the year's rainfall total at 24.70 inches compared to a normal of 27.15 inches.

Low cost hot water.

While you get cool.

Add a General Electric Hot Water Bank heat recovery unit to your central air conditioner.

Pay for energy once... use it twice! The Hot Water Bank heat recovery unit uses the heat your air conditioner draws from your house to make hot water. Because the Hot Water Bank works from the air conditioner, you get double duty.

The GE Hot Water Bank heat recovery unit works with any hot water heater. It's compact—no larger than a briefcase—and it's UL listed.

At the standard rated capacity of 30-gal. air conditioner, a nominal three-ton cooling system with compressor running, will produce 16 gallons per hour of 140°F hot water (70°F water input).

Old, New World relics displayed

An anthropological teaching museum has opened this fall at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, according to David Huntley, director of the Office of Cultural Arts and University Museums, in conjunction with a campus-wide exhibition titled "The University Collects."

The exposition opened last week with a reception in the Opapi Gallery of the University Center, and will continue through Oct. 19.

The anthropological teaching museum has on display ceremonial art, games, tools, weapons and other implements, as well as costumes and other relics from pre-historic and primitive societies of the Americas.

Examples from other world cultures also are on display.

Designed primarily for the use of students and faculty members in the Department of Anthropology as a supplemental resource to the classroom, the museum is the result of "vision and long hours of physical labor," Huntley said.

All displays in the museum were built and assembled by volunteer faculty members and students interested in anthropology.

"As a teaching facility, the museum will provide a study collection representing a broad range of anthropology. Artifacts range from fragments of bone to counting devices and musical instruments," Huntley said.

"Exhibits include artifacts from both the 'old and new worlds.'"

The Old World exhibit includes items relating to human evolution and culture, as well as major cultural events in human history such as the advent of fire, the making of stone tools, and data on the environment.

This section of the museum covers time in human evolution up to approximately 27,000 B.C., Theodore Frisbie, associate professor of anthropology, said.

The New World exhibit begins with a display focusing on the Paleo-Indian culture, the earliest documented culture originating around 15,000 years ago. It proceeds through the archaic, woodland, Mississippian, and Cahokia cultures, as well as the era known as the period of historic archaeology which continued into the 1820s.

A special feature of the Midwest is a group of exhibits based on findings at the Qlin site near Cottage Hills, dating from 1150-1400 A.D.

A diorama of the site excavations from about 1400 features a village, house plans, and an "in situ" burial.

Artifacts taken from the site during summer archaeological field schools led by Sidney Denny, associate professor of anthropology at the university, are also on exhibit.

The museum includes exhibits relating to the American Southwest. Relics belonging to the cultures of pit house dwellers, Pueblo, Navajo and Plains Indian tribes are on display.

Artifacts from several Mexican cultures are exhibited, including hand-carved and painted wooden masks used in a variety of fiestas and religious performances.

Although made in all parts of Mexico, the SIUE collection is from the southern state of Oaxaca and is typical of the work produced during the last 100 years, Frisbie said.

Nepalese and African items have been given to the museum by former students from those countries attending SIUE. The collection includes musical instruments, examples of handicrafted basketry, and other objects traditionally used by the people of the Himalayas, as well as examples of African woodwork.

The University Collects exposition includes a walking tour of the campus, featuring some of the examples of artworks and artifacts from each of its varied collections.

60-day jail term

Scott D. Rushing, 18, of 2503 Kirkpatrick Homes, has been sentenced to serve 60 days in the Madison County Jail and one year of probation after pleading guilty to burglary.

A state trooper alleged seeing him inside Farmer's Market, East 23rd Street and Nameoki Road, July 30. A gate had been forced open and an interior window broken.

Circuit Judge Horace Calvo pronounced sentence in Madison County Circuit Court.

BATTERY ALLEGED
Virgil B. Jett Jr., 45, of 2122 near Gillespie St., was arrested Tuesday and was charged with a state count of battery. It is alleged on Sept. 11, Jett got out of his car, approached Jerry Holley at the rear of 2808 Oregon Ave., said, "Hi Jerry," and then struck him three or four times. Jett was released on $302 bond.

At the police car, he allegedly refused to get in the back seat and yelled, "Hit me again." Force again was used to get him in the car, officers said.

He was taken directly to the emergency room at St. Elizabeth Medical Center where sutures were administered to close a cut to his head and he was taken to the Granite City Police Building.

Officers alleged finding 10 live bullets in his trouser's pocket. Both pistols were located in a closet in the bedroom of Thuck's home.

Patrolman Don Petrillo told authorities his watchband was broken during the scuffle.

Arrested at home

Lemond Collins, 35, of 2444 Adams St., was arrested at his home at 3:55 p.m. Wednesday on warrants alleging two counts of aggravated assault.

The warrants were signed by the parents of two 13-year-old girls who allege Collins attempted to back his car into the girls as they were walking past the alley near his home.

The first incident occurred Aug. 12 at 24th and Adams streets and the second incident was Sept. 19 on 25th Street between Adams and Benton streets, police alleged.

In the latter incident, the victim said she was walking past the alley when a man in a car looked at her, gave her "a funny-looking smile," and then backed his car at her quickly.

She ran out of the way and kept running, she reported. He got out of the car, looked at her as she ran and then drove in the alley, parking the car behind Collins' home, police were told.

Scuffle with police ends in arrest

Harold David Thuck, 28, of 3089 Wayne Ave., was charged with aggravated assault, resisting a police officer and disorderly conduct after he allegedly scuffled with police in his home at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Officers were called to the home on a report of a family disturbance and allegedly found Thuck arguing with his parents in loud and obscene language.

Police were told he had two guns in his possession and was in a bedroom. Officers alleged he was waving one loaded revolver in his hand and another was on his belt.

He allegedly yelled he did not care if he got shot, but would shoot at least one policeman first.

After what police said were several "tense moments," including two occasions when he started down the hall with the guns toward officers, the mother convinced Thuck to put the guns down in the bedroom, according to official reports.

He came out, but officers were unsure if he still had a gun on his belt, since his shirt tail was covering the belt, it was reported. When Sgt. Roy Koberna grabbed his arm to search him for a weapon, Thuck allegedly pulled away and shouted obscenities at officers, who then struck him on the head and used force to handcuff him and remove him from the house.

At the police car, he allegedly refused to get in the back seat and yelled, "Hit me again." Force again was used to get him in the car, officers said.

He was taken directly to the emergency room at St. Elizabeth Medical Center where sutures were administered to close a cut to his head and he was taken to the Granite City Police Building.

Officers alleged finding 10 live bullets in his trouser's pocket. Both pistols were located in a closet in the bedroom of Thuck's home.

Patrolman Don Petrillo told authorities his watchband was broken during the scuffle.

$253 BURGLARY
Loot valued at about $253 was stolen from the home of Robert Barry, 2010 Fifth St., East Madison, last week.

Taken were four copper pots, four copper skillets, a copper tea kettle containing $150 in cash, an iron hanger and several other pots.

BREAKFAST KIWANIS OFFICERS are installed Thursday. From left are Kiwanis Lt. Gov. Clifford Fore, installing officer; William Fever, president; Randall Irwin, vice-president; Charlie Deal, secretary, and Bob McMillan, treasurer. The Breakfast Kiwanis Club supports many civic activities including crime protection, Explorer programs, "Officer Friendly," and buying eyeglasses for needy children. The breakfast club and the Granite City Evening Kiwanis joined in their annual "Peanuts for Kids Day" during the weekend.

JEWELRY JOTTINGS

By RUSS WALKER

The blond girls of the Middle Ages dreaded the day their lovely hair would start to darken. Necklaces of opal were supposed to keep the light-yellow hue in hair indefinitely.

For those born in October, the opal birthstone brings good fortune. Let us show you our collection... they make lovely gifts.

MARRIED. Mr. and Mrs. David Sheely were married Sept. 15 at Word of Life Tabernacle. The bride is the former Miss Lori Ann Coonrod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coonrod of Granite City.

Miss Coonrod and David Sheely marry

Miss Lori Ann Coonrod and David Alan Sheely were united in marriage Sept. 15 at Word of Life Tabernacle. The Rev. Henry Crippen performed the double ring ceremony at 2 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coonrod, 3161 Jill Ave. Parents of the groom, Master Sgt. and Mrs. Raymond Sheely, are residing in Japan. The groom is the grandson of Clay Tindall of Granite City. Janice Reinhart and Beth Potillo provided the music for the occasion.

The bride, who was escorted down the aisle by her father, selected a gown of white chateau with a bodice overlaid with Chantilly lace. The square neckline was enhanced with sequins and seed pearls.

The bishop sleeves featured inserts of matching lace. Flower clusters applied with sequins and seed pearls accented the waist. The skirt was made with panels of Chantilly lace.

Her dress featured a floor length train of lace. She wore a headpiece of matching lace and seed pearls which secured a double tulle veil trimmed in Venice lace. She carried a bouquet of white pom poms, yellow roses and baby's breath, interlaced with yellow net and lace. Tracy Lea Ellis was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of lavender giana and carried a bouquet of white carnations and lavender pom poms interlaced with dark lavender and white netting.

The bridesmaid, Miss Kimberly Hand, a cousin of the bride, wore an apricot gown trimmed in white lace. Her bouquet was of white carnations and red roses with orange and white netting.

Tammy Scroggins, a cousin of the bride, chose a pale blue gown trimmed in white lace. She carried a basket of varied flowers.

Raymond Sheely, a brother of the groom, served as best man. Harry Pearce was groomsmen. Timothy and Tony Scroggins seated the guests. Tyler Pearson was ring bearer. All are cousins of the bride.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Coonrod, wore a pink print organza gown in the style of the bride's dress. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Tri-Mor Bowl Banquet Hall.

Women of Moose annual conference

Women of the Moose held their annual state conference in conjunction with the Loyal Order of Moose convention in Peoria, at the Peoria Hilton Hotel and Continental Regency Hotel.

Co-workers who attended from the Granite City chapter were Mesdames Sara Gusewelle, Rosella Mead, Dorothy Coy, Alice Knipping, Carolyn Anders, Mildred Votoupal, Iris Chastain, Alice Skaggs, Pauline Laney, Edna Miller and Marian Lipscomb.

A ritual session was held and answers were given on chapter procedures and ritual work.

Conference leader was Deputy Grand Regent Helen Burke. The answer session was led by Official Visitor Vivian St. Clair Boram from Mooseheart.

There were 866 attending the three-day session from Illinois and Missouri. The mid-year conference will be held in April 1980, and will also be in Peoria.

Green cap convocation will be held on Oct. 28 at the Scottish Rite Temple in Bloomington. Junior Graduate Regent Sara Gusewelle will receive her cap.

Miss Lupardus is engaged

The engagement of Miss Tammi R. Lupardus and Paul K. Mooshegian is being announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lupardus, 2515 Morrison Road.

The prospective groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mooshegian, 2569 Boyle Ave.

An April 19, 1980, wedding is being planned by them and their families.

The bride-elect graduated from Granite City High School North in 1975. She is employed at St. Elizabeth Medical Center as a laboratory secretary.

Her fiancé also graduated from North High in 1975 and from Belleville Area College in 1977. He is employed at Granite City Steel.

The wedding will take place at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

A niece of Mrs. Weeks, visiting there from Riverdale, Calif., Mrs. Linda Jones, accompanied them here for a visit.

ENGAGED. A late October wedding is being planned by Miss Sandra Jean Unterlechner of St. Louis and Jeffrey Andre Jobe. The groom is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Freeman and Tom Jobe, both of Granite City.

Miss Unterlechner to wed

Miss Sandra Jean Unterlechner and Jeffrey Andre Jobe are planning a late October wedding. The bride-elect is the daughter of the late Alois and Josephine Unterlechner. The groom's parents, Mrs. Dorothy Freeman and Tom Jobe, both reside in Granite City.

Girl Scouting honors Madison Jr. Service

A "back to school" theme was the setting for the Madison Junior Service Club's first meeting of the new year. Hostesses Julia Voloski and Rose Krawiec prepared a sack lunch for each member and school time games were played. Tentative plans for the Federation workshop were discussed. It is to be held Oct. 20 at the Madison Recreation Center. Clubs from Collinsville and Granite City will attend. Judy Donaldson and Billie Bosworth presented the club with a plaque from the Girl Scout Council in appreciation for sponsorship and donations. President Carol Robertson accepted a first-place trophy from the girls' softball team, the club sponsored. Plans were announced for a pancake and sausage breakfast for the benefit of the Madison County Hospice, to be held at the Madison Recreation Center on Oct. 28. Donna Woodward, JoAnn Gushleff and Caroline Champion are chairmen and tickets are available by contacting them.

Election by Esther class at Suburban

The Esther Class of Suburban Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Hildred Lewis. The meeting was called to order by the class president, Susie Horton, with prayer offered by Jean Fisher.

The class served dinner to a revival team and church members, and also served dessert for Boy Scout dinner.

The group discussed items needed for the church that the class purchased. Susie Horton was re-elected as president for the next year. Secretary will be Imogene Smith, treasurer Evelyn Mohorn, sunshine chairman Edna Jackson, recording secretary Ruth Messey, outreach leader Mary Lou Summers, vice-president Hildred Lewis and group leaders Wanda Bradford, Sharon Purkey and Mary Charlton. Helen Cook will continue as class teacher.

The president challenged each officer with a Scripture verse, and offered prayer for each.

A devotional by the class teacher was entitled, "A Recipe for a Happy New Year."

Next meeting is to be held in the home of Georgia Harlow, who was among those present. A time of fellowship followed.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph (Lee) Schewes of Briarhaven Drive are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married Oct. 5, 1929, at Concordia Lutheran Church.

Joseph Schewes mark 50 years of marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schewes, 44a Briarhaven Drive, are observing their 50th wedding anniversary this week.

The couple was married Oct. 5, 1929, at Concordia Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Schewes is the former Miss Lee Dettwiler.

Prior to retiring in 1975, she owned and operated Schewes's Corner Confectionery at 2550 Grand Ave. for 21 years.

Her husband retired in 1970 from Pfizer, Inc., where he was employed 25 years as an electrician.

Both are members of Hope Lutheran Church.

Mr. Schewes, a veteran of World War II and the Korean War, is a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300, Tri-City American Legion Post 113 and Quad-City Amvet Post 51.

Their golden anniversary will be celebrated Saturday, Oct. 6, at an open house hosted by the honorees' families.

The event will take place in the home of Mr. Schewes' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Holten, 29 Nassau, where the couple will greet friends between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. Saturday.

Don Moores honored on silver anniversary

A dinner party to observe the silver wedding anniversary of Don and Florence Moore was given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moore, Mrs. Mary Mattingly and Mrs. Barbara Wyatt. The event was held at The Moorings restaurant on Clayton Road.

Approximately 18 members of the immediate families were present. Mrs. Cecilia Loyet, mother of Florence Moore, was a special guest. After dinner, the group met at the home of Ed and Marge Moore in St. Louis.

A specially decorated cake in honor of the occasion was served and several gifts of crystal and silver were presented to the honorees.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore reside at 2465 Lynch Ave. They have four children.

Randy is a graduate of the University of Illinois and currently is employed by Madison County as a soil scientist. Ron is a student at SIU at Edwardsville and is employed part-time at the Kroger grocery store.

The Moores' daughters are living in Santa Cruz, Calif. Renee, a graduate of Western Illinois University, is employed by the Hollins House. Rhonda is a student at Cabrillo Junior College, studying solar energy.

Mrs. Moore is employed by Boatmen's National Bank in St. Louis as a secretary in the trust department. She is a member of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club and is presently serving as District XIV public relations chairman. She also serves as a trustee on the Granite City Library Board and is working toward a degree in business administration by taking evening classes at SIUE.

Moore is employed by the Air Force at the Defense Mapping Agency and Aerospace Center, 2nd and Arsenal streets, St. Louis as a branch chief supervisor. He is a member of the Arlington Golf Club and he and his family are members of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

SPEAKER ON NEW TEACHING METHODS

A professor of education at SIUE who believes what a teacher does is more important than what a teacher knows, will be the guest speaker Saturday, Oct. 13, at an area meeting of Kappa Delta Pi, the national society in education.

Merrill Harmin, secondary educator, author and president of a three-year, federally-funded program to find new approaches to teacher education, will discuss his experiences during the 11:30 a.m. luncheon meeting at the Round Table Restaurant in Collinsville. Granite Cityans are among the members.

The meeting, open to Lambda Theta Chapter members in Madison and St. Clair counties in Illinois and St. Louis city and county in Missouri, is the first of a series planned for the 1979-80 school year. It will include pledge ceremonies for 40 new student and faculty members.

40TH ANNIVERSARY. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nighohossians, 1723 Chestnut St., prepare to slice the anniversary cake at a dinner and reception, hosted by their six sons and families at Charlie's Restaurant. In background at right is the Rev. Souran Chinchinian.

Samuel Nighohossians celebrate 40th year

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nighohossian, 1723 Chestnut St., celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary with a dinner and reception at Charlie's Restaurant.

The event was given by the couple's six sons and their families.

The hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Haig Nighohossian, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Nighohossian, Mr. and Mrs. Samson Nighohossian and Casper, Sarkis and Leo Nighohossian.

All reside in Granite City with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Nighohossian also have two grandchildren.

The honorees were married Sept. 10, 1939, at the Holy Trinity Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church, when the church was located at the present site of St. Gregory the Illuminator Armenian Apostolic Church in Lincoln Place.

Both are now members of St. Gregory's Church.

Prior to retiring seven years ago, Mr. Nighohossian owned and operated Sam's Tavern, 921 Nindringhaus Ave.

His wife is the former Ann Geragossian. Mr. and Mrs. Nighohossian were honored by 150 relatives and friends at the anniversary dinner.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Nighohossian's sister, Mrs. Andy Nazarian and Mr. and Mrs. Greg Nazarian, all of Watervliet, N.Y.

Also among the guests were the Rev. Khoren Habeshian, pastor of St. Gregory's Church, Mrs. Habeshian and the Rev. Souran Chinchinian of East St. Louis.

Medical Center Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Bergfield

Mrs. Helen Bergfield was elected as president of the St. Elizabeth Medical Center Auxiliary at the meeting of the group last week.

Other officers elected included: Bea Rittenhouse, vice-president; Vera Carey, secretary; Louise Smith, treasurer; Bea Oonk, general account chairman; Mary Kristian, treasurer of gift shop; Mable Gaston, treasurer of coffee shop; Gladys Kaiser, chairman of TV.

It was announced that the Christmas party for the auxiliary will be Dec. 7. Old Six Mile Prairie Day will be held at the medical center Oct. 3, according to Sister Francis.

A style show was held under the direction of Mrs. Judith Stille of Tops 'N Bottoms. Clara Schilling provided commentary. Those modeling included

Norma McCormick, Alice Kralline, Mrs. Bergfield, Mrs. Kristian, Ann Pare, Anna Palsgrove, Bea Rittenhouse, Delores Klesh and Marilyn Schooley.

Authentic clothes from 1939 and 1950 were modeled, under the direction of Lois Wetton. Edna Koberbrecher, Mary Rose Lambert, Ann Gales, Beverly Bull and Peggy Gibson were models.

Music was furnished by Valerie Stevens on piano and soloist Louise Keaton.

GC CHILDHOOD GROUP TO MEET

The Early Childhood Education Organization will hold its first meeting of the school year Tuesday, Oct. 9, at the SIUE Early Childhood Resource Center.

Members from satellite groups in Granite City, O'Fallon, East St. Louis, Bethalto and Edwardsville will join the group to discuss results of recent area meetings. There will be a general discussion of the interests and needs of early childhood and primary educators in area communities.

The ECEO meeting is free and open to the public, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Building III, Room 131, with a special invitation to kindergarten teachers and all undergraduate students.

CANCEL WORKSHOP

A two-day workshop at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville focusing on problem-solving for the health professional, has been canceled. It was planned for today and tomorrow.

South can't capitalize, but Althoff can

Press-Record Sports

GRANITE CITY (III.) PRESS-RECORD, Monday, Oct. 1, 1979—19

JEFF BERGRADER of GCHS South finds some running room Saturday night during the Warriors' 28-6 Gateway East Conference loss at the hands of Althoff High in Belleville's Township Stadium. It was South's first conference loss of the season and second overall, giving it a 2-2 record.

By KEVIN ALLEN

of the Press-Record

BELLEVILLE — Scott Polson, looking smaller and lonelier without his Granite City South football uniform, walked alone in front of the bleachers at the south end of Township Stadium here Saturday night.

His team grunted through a warm-up drill on the field prior to its game with Althoff, while Polson had to be content to watch from the stands in street clothes.

"Hey Scott, why aren't you playing?" someone yelled down from the stands. "I gotta bruised back," he yelled back before he turned and walked, head down, away.

Polson then watched as the Althoff Crusaders beat the Warriors 21-6. He also watched his would-be counterpart, Althoff's running back Mike Laney, run through the Warriors' defense with the kind of low to the ground, dirt-tasting style that a healthy Scott Polson knows well.

The Warriors' defense saw one back too many, and the Warriors' offense saw one back too few.

After the game South's head coach Stan Wojcik walked alone quietly and quickly to the waiting bus. "Not having Polson, that just killed us," he explained calmly. "Both his blocking and not carrying the ball. We found out tonight just how big a part of our game he is."

The Warriors knew how important victory against Althoff was. The Crusaders were and are still one of the most serious of the aspirants to the championship of the Gateway East Conference.

For just less than half the game it was as if the Warriors were up to the challenge of the Crusaders, with or without a full stable of running backs.

South scored late in the first quarter, 6-0. Althoff found the end zone minutes later, 6-6.

But with 1:25 left in the first half, Althoff began pulling away from South, like a runner with nothing but grass and goal line in front of him.

It was a pass play that put the Crusaders off and running. Quarterback Matt Hardin spun the ball from the 19-yard line over the shoulder and into the hands of Bob Totech as he settled softly in the end zone.

Hardin passed to Don Schaefer for a two-point conversion to make the score 14-6 at halftime.

South had earlier scored on a 17-yard pass from Blake Ambuehl to Kevin Greene. The extra point attempt failed, giving the Warriors a 6-0 lead with 3:02 left in the first quarter.

The Crusaders tied the score 36 seconds into the second period when Laney, whose 14 carries netted 104 yards, freed himself from the scrimmage line clutter around the 28-yard line, and eluded South's Walt Streicher and Greene in route to his scoring run.

And then came the go-ahead scoring drive for the Crusaders.

The Warriors though, missed some excellent opportunities in the first half. For instance, an Althoff fumble on its first possession following the opening kickoff, was recovered by Streicher on the Crusader's 28-yard line.

The Warriors wasted no time, an 18-yard pass from Ambuehl to Mark Marsh was the first play following the fumble. Three plays brought the ball within falling-distance of the goal line. On fourth-and-two, the Warriors got only one and the ball went over.

"They beat us physically," Wojcik said. "After that first series, we just didn't block. We just made stupid mistakes."

Missed blocking may have caused Althoff's third and fourth touchdowns, in both cases long-yardage running plays enabled the Crusaders the opportunities.

The Crusaders' 78-yard scoring drive in the third quarter was highlighted first by a 15-yard run by Barry Kastner, then a 27-yard run by Laney. Schaefer rushed for the touch down from four yards out. Jeff Junker's extra point gave Althoff a 21-6 lead.

Then, just before the third quarter ended, Althoff's Dave Rissler brought the Crusaders to the South 17-yard line with a 34-yard run. Five plays later Doug Schaefer went in from the 2-yard line. The extra point made it 28-6.

Where Wojcik looked for explanations for his team's missed opportunity to advance itself in the conference, Althoff's head coach Dean Scott spoke with the humility and graciousness that winning makes easy.

"I was proud of the way we came back tonight," he said. "When we fumbled deep in our territory, South could have scored easily, but we held tough."

North works overtime but Shells still win

By KEVIN ALLEN

of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — When Granite City North quarterback Tim Dudley was followed onto the field by place kicker Rob Chapman, emerging from what appeared to be a prayer meeting on the sidelines with North head coach Tom Wyrostek, everyone present knew what decision had been about the most crucial play of the game.

It was the third play of the four play series both teams were awarded to determine the outcome of North's game against the Roxana Shells, Friday night.

The ball was nestled three ominously long yards away from the goal, and with but one play to send it somehow from there over the goal line. Rarely is there a time when a game's outcome rests so clearly on a choice as it does on fourth-and-three in overtime.

So when Chapman trotted on the decision clearly had been made to attempt an almost certain field goal and hope that the Steeler defense could hold the Shells to at least the same.

It couldn't. Roxana scored a TD on its series of plays and escaped with a 6-3 win. Chapman's kick was straight and true. The easy part done, the Steeler defense replaced the field goal unit.

After having seen his defense stop the Shells all game long, while also seeing his offense kick potential scoring drives with untimely errors, Wyrostek was gambling that once again the Steelers could hold.

But the first Shells' play, a dive into the line by quarback Ralph Watkins, brought the ball to the 5-yard line. Three plays to make five yards.

Anticipation got the best of Roxana on second down. A five yard illegal motion penalty brought the ball back to the ten. Three plays to make ten yards. The situation was vastly improved.

Another running play. This time David Slayden carried the ball back to the five. But the Shells used only one. Watkins faked a hand-off to a running back, turned sharply, and headed for the left corner of the end zone. He arrived untouched. The Shells won 6-3.

"We showed that play all night on the right side," Shell's head coach Charles Raich said. "So we figured we'd use it on the left side."

We had a pretty good idea that's what we'd do if it came down to it.

The scoreless 45 minutes that preceded the overtime series was, in Raich's words, "a rough, tough, defensive battle."

In fact, only once did either team get down to inside the other's 15-yard line. That was in the third period when North's Kevin Buchanan ran 10 yards to the Roxana 11 yard line.

But when Dudley was twice caught behind the line of scrimmage, first by defensive guard Doug Walker, then by defensive end Ron Nelson, the Steelers were pushed back to the 26-yard line.

On fourth-and-25, North was forced to attempt the field goal. Chapman's kick, (Continued on Page 21)

Madison succumbs again

MADISON — Columbia High's football team became the fourth to get rich statistically against Madison here Saturday when it bombed the Trojans 55-0 in the first home game of the season at Madison.

Madison, which is now 0-4, has been a victim of shakelings in each of its losses. The Trojans have surrendered 230 points while scoring just 3 (in the first game, a 61-3 loss at Quincy Notre Dame). Others have been 52-0 to Breese Central and 62-0 to St. Vincent Prep of Perryville, Mo.

The loss was the second of the season for Madison in the Quad-County Conference, with the victory, Columbia's Eagles ran their season record to 3-0.

Saturday, the Trojans worst enemies were themselves, giving up eight turnovers. Three of Columbia's touchdowns were scored by their defense. Eight different players scored for the Eagles.

Columbia's Mike Suedkamp got the scoring started for his team when he scored from a yard out in the first quarter. Things got worse for Madison in the second period.

The defensive unit of Columbal got into its act in the second quarter when it scored twice. A 61-yard fumble retrain for a score and a 30-yard pass interception by Joe Metter for a TD were wrapped around a 14-yard Kurt Webber to Craig Foster pass to make the score 27-0 at halftime.

In the third period, Columbia scored once, on a 31-yard pass from Webber to John Oelsby.

The Eagles added 21 more points in the final period. Dan Grueniger scored on a six-yard run. Roger Klingner returned a fumble 10 yards and Joe Stahlschmidt had a nine-yard run.

Madison out-gained Columbia in rushing 112 yards to 92, but lagged in passing yardage, 34-112. The leading Trojan rusher was Troy Butler who ran the ball 14 times for 46 yards. Anthony McDonald had 11 carries for 36 yards. Robert Johnson did all the passing for the Trojans from the quarterback spot, completing three of 19.

Next weekend, Madison has an open date, while Columbia plays at Freeburg Saturday.

Rachael Tucker and Lisa Mosley of Mascoutah 6-2, 6-4 in the first round. They were beaten by Munie and Howard (the team Gabriel and Squires downed for the title) 6-2, 6-2 in the second round.

Gabriel and Squires advanced to the finals by downing Diane Rutz and Kim Niggl of Highland 6-2, 6-0 in the second round. Linda Bellina and Lisa Staten of O'Fallon 6-2, 6-0 in the third round and Allison Dickerson and Eva Carter 7-6, 6-2 in the semifinals.

Gabriel, Squires win tourney doubles title

BELLEVILLE — The Granite City South doubles team of Laura Gabriel and Susan Squires became "giant-killers" of sorts here Saturday when the defeated team of Robin Munie and Jeanne Howard 7-6, 6-4 for the championship of the Belleville East Girls Tennis Invitational.

As a team, South finished in a tie for second with Collinsville with nine points. Champion Highland finished with 10. East and Belleville Althoff tied for fourth with 8. Centralia had 6, O'Fallon 4, Wood River 3, Belleville 2, Mascoutah 1, Cahokia 0 and East St. Louis 0.

Highland's Laurie Fodeerer upset Patty Griffin won the West meet with 381. South finished with 452.

In other action involving South players, Laurie Lehman of Althoff defeated Joan Boker of South in the first round of singles play, but the doubles team of Wendy Kelly and Susan Bell advanced to the second round before being eliminated.

Kelly and Bell defeated

Course in Belleville.

North finished with 230 strokes behind O'Fallon's 212 and Salem's 229. Springfield Griffin won the West meet with 381. South finished with 452.

Salem's Tim Eller was the individual medalist at the Mater Dei meet with a 72.

North's scores were: Chris Andrews 78, Rob Fyalka 80, Rocky Abbott 82, Paul Eads 83, Jerry Coyle 87 and Paul Miller 91.

Totals for South were: Larry Holder 83, Paul Zimmer 87, Todd Burns 88, Greg Mulach 88 and Greg Page 106.

QUINCY — Opportunity knocked here Saturday for both Granite City prep soccer teams, and they answered.

Granite City North, and South traveled to Quincy for a doubleheader of sorts at Quincy College with Quincy Notre Dame and Quincy Senior High (respectively).

After the long day of soccer was over, nine goals had been scored — four by North and five by South. North started things off by thrashing Notre Dame 4-0 with South finishing up with a 5-0 victory over Quincy High. Each team had an individual scoring star.

North's Mark Jones scored three goals after teammate Mike Robertson got things started. South's Phil Beljanski celebrated his second game back in the lineup after being out with a broken nose by scoring four goals.

North coach Bob Kehoe was happy with his team — in the first half. "I thought we let up after halftime," he said. "We seem to have that problem. We go ahead by a couple goals then lose concentration."

Robertson scored what proved to be the only goal his team would need with 4:31 remaining in the first quarter. He headed a shot into the net after taking a cross from Ken Myracle from the left side. Then it was Jones' turn.

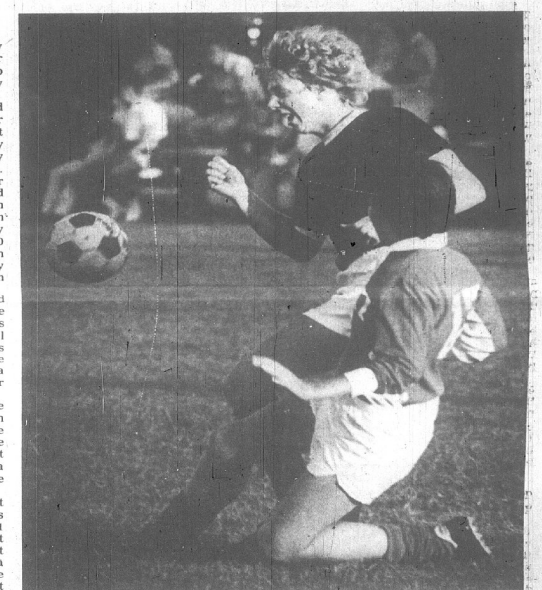

Jones scored twice in the second quarter. The first goal was unassisted. Robertson assisted on the second. In the third quarter, he scored on a free kick.

Notre Dame lost a lot of people from their team of a year ago," said Kehoe. "But that's not to say they're not a good team. They're very good."

South coach Gene Baker said things might change for his team once Beljanski returned to the lineup. They have.

Beljanski, who normally plays in the backfield, was moved up into the striker position by Baker in his first game back Friday night at Belleville. Althoff (see related story). The result of that move has been a five-goal performance in two games.

"I don't know how long we'll keep him there," said Baker. "There are a lot of last two by Jeff Tinsley.

"We'll probably leave him there as long as he can score like that."

Baljanski started the scoring at the 9:33 mark in the first quarter when he took a pass from David Paz and sent the shot into the net. After teammate Jack Burnett scored on a penalty kick at the 19:44 mark, Baljanski got back into the act.

Beljanski scored twice in the third period and once in the fourth. His second goal was assisted by Tim Dix, the Today's North-Edwardsville meeting is set for 5 p.m. with junior varsity action at 3:30. South's game Tuesday will begin at 8 p.m. with junior varsity at 6:30. Thursday's North-South game will start at 4 p.m. There will be no junior varsity game.

South and North return to Gateway East Conference action this week. The biggest game will come Thursday when the two square off for the second time this season.

But before that game, North must host Edwardsville today (Monday) while South hosts Cahokia Tuesday.

Cougars tie twice

EDWARDSVILLE — Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer team and the University of Evansville battled to a 2-2 tie at Cougar Field Friday night. Despite a relentless attack in the two overtime periods, when the Cougars outshot the Purple Aces 11-0, SIUE's win streak was halted at four.

Sunday, SIUE-Edwardsville battled the University of Missouri-St. Louis to a 1-1 deadlock at UMSL. Neither team scored in the first half. UMSL grabbed a 1-0 lead in the 62-60 mark of the second period on a goal by Dominic Barczewski assisted by Jerry DeRousse.

But SIUE's Cougars came battling back. Dave Hundt took a pass from teammate Tom Groat at the 79-56 mark and fired it home into the net past UMSL goalie Ed Weiss to tie the score.

Friday, Don Ebert put the Cougars on top at the 49 second mark on a beautiful feed from senior winger Jeff Cacciatore. SIUE then built up a 2-0 lead on Ebert's second goal of the game, and 11th of the year, at the 18:16 mark. Tim Guelker headed the ball goalward, when Ebert rifled the ball out of the air into the upper left hand corner of the net.

The Purple Aces cut the Cougar advantage in half at 39:10 of the first stanza on John Nunes' goal after a nice pass from Gerard Homer. SIUE led at the intermission 2-1.

The Indiana visitors tied the contest at 56:37, as Just Jensen headed a ball past Cougar goalie Mark Dowar after a lob pass by Davies Bellamy.

Guelker had a chance to put the Cougars ahead 25 minutes into the second period, but Evansville goalie Bill Hempen made a sensational one-handed diving save on the Cougar junior midfielder.

Bob Bozada hit the crossbar on a cannon shot with one minute remaining in the first of two 10-minute overtime periods, while SIUE outshot the Purple

Aces in the first extra period, 6-0.

The Cougars are now 6-2-1, while Evansville is 4-1-4.

In Friday's game against Evansville U., SIUE outshot the Purple Aces 27-20, and had the edge in corner kicks 6-2. The Cougars were whistled for 26 fouls, Evansville for 23. SIUE goalie Mark Dowar made five saves, Evansville's Bill Hempen made 13.

Sunday against UMSL, SIUE outshot the Rivermen by a hefty 29-10 margin. UMSL had the edge in corner kicks 9-8. Cougar goalie Ed Gettemeyer made five saves, while UMSL goalie Weiss had nine. SIUE had 27 fouls, UMSL 22.

Steamers are coming, and it's about time!

By PETE HAYES

Sports Editor

of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Like a lost child, professional soccer is returning to St. Louis. But this time, the team won't be comprised of a bunch of foreign players unknown to the soccer-smart populace of this area. Instead, 80 percent of the team will be local talent.

The game is soccer. But it's a bit different from the style normally known to people around here. It's indoor soccer — Major Indoor Soccer League soccer to be exact. And it's going to be exciting.

St. Louis was awarded a new franchise in the league during the past spring and named it the Steamers. They will play their games in the CheckerDome.

Fan interest is already beginning to mount. According to Steamers Publicity Director Gary Rensing, the team is looking for an average of 10,000 fans a game in the 20,000-seat CheckerDome.

"Pro soccer bid adieu to St. Louis two years ago when the Stars of the North American Soccer League split for California where they took up residence as the Surf. Reasons were many for the departure — poor playing facilities (Francis Field) for the players and virtually no parking, concession or rest room facilities for the fans. But things will be different this time around with the Steamers of the Indoor League.

Rensing, who played nine years in the NASL for the Stars and one for the Chicago Sting upon graduation from St. Louis University and Mercy High, said the organization will be first-class. "Indoor soccer is taking off all over the country," he said. "It's a faster game than the outdoor one. There is more scoring.

The Sporting Thing

And the caliber of the players is not diluted."

One reason for the high caliber of talent is that many players in the MISL are also NASL players. The indoor season does not conflict with the outdoor. It runs from December to March, about when the NASL teams are beginning training.

The Steamers' roster hasn't been officially released, but it will have one name on it familiar to area soccer fans — Ty Keough.

Keough, who starred for St. Louis University, was signed recently by the club. "We're really excited about it," said Rensing. "You can build a soccer team around a guy like Ty."

Another familiar name will be that of the head coach, Pat McBride.

Rensing said that he doubted that any former Granite City players would be on the roster, but that the possibility always exists.

"We're not going after any amateur players," he said. "But there are a few players from Granite City who have played in college and graduated that we might take a look at."

The rules of the indoor game are a combination of soccer and ice hockey. For instance, there are five players on the floor at one time in addition to the goalie for each team. If a team wishes, it can pull its goalie out of the nets in favor of a sixth attacker — just like in hockey. In the case of a penalty kick, the player guilty of the infraction will be given a two-minute penalty during which time, his team will have to play a man short.

The lighter soccer ball may be played off the boards in the indoor game and substitutions can be made on the fly that is, without stopping play.

Gundaker wins feature race

GRANITE CITY — Kevin Gundaker from St. Louis, Mo. took the 30-lap feature race for late model stock cars at the Tri-City Speedway here Saturday night.

Gundaker started in the 6th starting spot alongside Gary Papp. Dick Taylor on the front row pole and Mike Wallace on the outside front row. At the drop of the green flag, Mike Wallace took the lead and held on until Lap 8 when Gundaker overtook him in the No. 2 turn and held on to the checkered flag. This was Gundaker's 4th feature win for the year here.

Wallace had the misfortune of spinning out into the infield grass bringing out the yellow and had to restart on the back end of the race. Gundaker won the 8-lap heat race and came back to win the 6-lap trophy dash to give him the clean sweep for the night.

Dick Taylor, who had not won a feature here this year, still came out with enough points to claim the track champion title by running very consistently all year and came out over 300 points, ahead of the second place man Mike Wallace and third place finisher Joe Ross.

In the Sportsman Class, it was Paul Humphrey Sr. who took the top honors driving his 1968 Camaro. Pat Walsh driving his No. 98 1978 Camaro and Rob Jones driving his No. 71 1977 Camaro took the heat races. Gundaker and Bo Smith took the heat races in the late model class.

Next Saturday night Oct. 6th at the Speedway will be an open competition late model race. This will be a 50-lap feature race on the 1/2 mile dirt track and is expected to draw many big name drivers from many states, being that the money will be here to win and that many of the race tracks are closed for the season. Also Sat. night will feature a special treat by the Belleville, Ill. and St. Charles, Mo. Modified Class "A" race cars also on the 1/2 mile track. Many of the drivers have never raced on a large track so most anything may happen.

Sunday afternoon Oct. 14th will be the Mighty Midgets. National on the 1/2 mile track and they are expected to have 50-or-60 cars, as many drivers have already filled entry blanks. They will be running under the I.M.C.A. banner. ("No race Sat. night Oct. 13th.")

On Wednesday night Oct. 17th will be the final race for the 1979 season and should be a dandy as the World-of-Outlaws sprint cars will be here running with the wings on top. This proves to be some very fast racing and many cars are already signed up to be here.

Field hockey It ain't too easy

GRANITE CITY — Field hockey. It's undergone quite a bit of criticism lately.

Critics say it's too complicated. Not enough scoring. Not enough interest among girls to play it. But for those who do, it's not easy.

Thursday, Granite City North and GCHS South met at Steeler Field. The outcome was a 2-0 victory for North's Steelers.

Even though it seems as if the whistle blows every few seconds stopping play, the action is actually quite fast-paced. With hockey sticks slapping at the ball, sometimes the thing that is actually hit is a shin or an ankle.

Passing is the important part of the sport. And sharp passing usually wins. But luck is involved too. A missed connection here. A good goalie save there can mean the difference between winning and losing.

angled from the left side of the field, had the distance but lacked the trajectory. It past the goal post harmlessly to the left.

The series was somewhat typical of the Steelers play the rest of the game. Mistakes, glaringly untimely, stopped drives cold. Frustrating for North, opportunity for Roxana. But the biggest break the Shells received in the game, according to Wyrostek, was the coin toss that followed the end of regulation play. The Shells won the toss, and elected to take the second series of downs. "They definitely had the advantage going second," Wyrostek said.

The loss was the Steelers' first in four games this season. And according to Wyrostek, there was a conscious change in plans from the previous successful efforts.

"We definitely changed our approach," he said. "It was part of the game plan. We thought the big play would be a game-winning type of thing. But now, it's back to basic football."

Raich, though, thought nothing drastic had altered the Steelers. "I think G.C. did everything they could to beat us. We always expect a hard game from them. They have a right to feel down. They played us in the dirt."

North stymies Alton

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City North soccer team stayed among the ranks of the unbeaten here Thursday with a 5-0 drubbing of respected Alton. Alton had earlier defeated defending state champion Granite City South 2-1. North coach Bob Kehoe felt his team had to be prepared for Alton or pay the price. They were and they didn't.

North used its high-powered scoring attack to do in the Redbirds early. With 17:38 remaining in the first quarter, Bob Batey took a nifty pass from Mark Jones and slammed it into the net for what proved to be the winning goal. With 2:36 left, Jones took a pass from John Kefalas to make it 2-0. With 4:19 left in the second period, Mike Robertson took a centering pass from Batey near midfield and took the ball through the Alton defense and ripped a shot into the net. Jones scored again at the 10:50 mark. The final goal came with 22 second sleft when Paul

North and South split

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City South girls volleyball team won the first of two North-South clashes here Thursday night with relative ease, by scores of 20-12 and 20-12. After being led 7-7, South reeled off three straight points to take a 10-7 lead only to see North go ahead by one 11-10. But South came back to take the victory.

The second game was much like the first. South went ahead early 6-0 but found itself ahead only 9-8 only a few minutes later. With Chris Boyd serving, South reeled off five straight points to take the win. The teams will meet again Oct. 31 at North. Thursday was also the day for the clash between North and South's girls field hockey teams. This time, North came out on top. The Steelerettes came away with a 2-0 victory over South. North's two goals were scored by Rene Dharp and Connie Seibert. Sharp's goal came 15 minutes into the first half. Seibert scored with 30 seconds remaining in the game.

Boxing going well

GRANITE CITY — Plans for the revival of amateur boxing in Granite City are going well, according to one of the local organizers, ruben Mendoza.

Boxing was popular in this area in the 1940s and 1950s and could enjoy that same success today if the interest already shown is any indication. According to Mendoza, 25 names have already been signed to participate in the program, ranging in age from 10 to 22. Coaches who boxed or coached during the 1940s and 50s have indicated they will be willing to donate their time to the program.

Six coaches have been located, but more are needed. Those who will be coaching are Jack Bighosian, Joe Trocky, Rufino DeLaCruz, Joey Bacera, Mercie Mendoza and Augie Bacera.

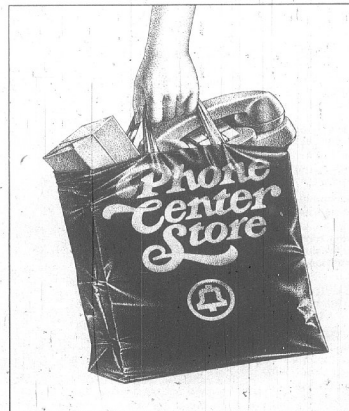

The boxing program will be held at facilities at the Granite City Army Depot. Anyone interested in taking part, as a boxer or a coach, may contact Mendoza at Mendoza's Sporting Goods, 452-5500.

South 6th

SPRINGFIELD — The Granite City South cross country team won the battle between itself and South here Saturday at the Springfield Southeast Invitational, but Petersburg-Port High won the war. South finished 6th in the varsity field of nine teams, with 151 points. North was 7th with 167. Petersburg-Port finished with 53.

North's Bruce DeRuntz was 8th overall in a time of 16:29. He edged Jeff Taylor of South who was 9th in 16:34.

In Memoriam 33
IN LOVING memory of GARLEN HANKINS, September 30, 1970. Sadly missed family. 33 10 1
IN LOVING memory of CLARENCE COX, JR., Sept. 29, 1978. We often sit and think of him when we are all alone. For memory is the only friend that grief can tell its own; Like ivory on the withered oak when all other leaves have fallen. Our love for him will still keep green and never fade away. Sadly missed by Wife, Daughter, Mom and all who loved him. 33 10 1

IN LOVING memory of HOWARD KAMM, who passed away suddenly three years ago on October 2, 1976. Remembrance is a golden chain death tries to break but all in vain. To have, to love and then to part is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. The years may wipe out many things, but this they will never. The memory of those happy days when we were all together. Sadly missed by his loving wife and children and grandchildren. 33 10 1

Young 'Indians' organized by 'Y'

Area fathers and their children (K-2nd grades) have been invited to attend an organizational meeting for Young Indians, Tuesday, Oct. 2. The meeting will be at the Tri-City Area YMCA, 2001 Edison Ave. at 7:30 p.m.

This parent-child program, based on Indian Lore, originated in St. Louis over 50 years ago.

"It is designed to offer fathers opportunities to share in physical and social activities with their youngsters," Lucy Tueth, the YS program director, said.

"Participants are divided up into tribes and then meet in each other's homes once or twice a month where they work on crafts, tell stories and play games," said Tueth.

Tueth also said that there are various outside activities sponsored by the "Y" such as picnics, trips and camps out where all the tribes get together.

The annual membership per father-child is $15 and $5 for each additional child. Those unable to attend the meeting, but still interested in finding out about the program may call 876-7200.

Six Mile Prairie Day Oct. 3 at medical center

"Old Six Mile Prairie Day," the fall event observing the 75th anniversary of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, will be held Oct. 3 in the basement of the parking garage at the medical center.

The festivities will be held from 5 to 10 p.m. and will include music, a square dance exhibition, a butter churning contest, games, food and prizes.

Each activity will be carried out in the spirit of 1890's when Granite City was the fall event chosen by the Niedringhaus brothers to build their granite ware plant, according to a hospital spokesman.

Costumes reflecting the "Gay '90's" era are requested and prizes will be given for the most original.

Tickets for the celebration will be free to all hospital employees, $1 for their guests and 50 cents for children.

New disco classes at 'Y'

The Tri-City Area YMCA has announced that a new series of disco classes will be offered this fall for youths and adults at the "Y," 2001 Edison Ave.

Professional instructors from Beverly Carter's New Image Dance Studio in Alton will teach the four-week classes. Carter said that along with the traditional dances, new material will be offered this fall.

Youth disco will meet on Saturdays from 10-11 a.m. beginning Oct. 6. The class is for youths ages 7-12 and will be taught by Dale Gregory.

On Sunday evenings, beginning Oct. 7, there will be both a beginners and advanced class for adults. The event will be held from 6:30-9:30 p.m. Jill Towse will teach both classes.

The fee for the youth class is $8 for "Y" members and $16 for non-members. Fees for the adult classes are $12 for "Y" members and $16 for non-members. For more information, or to register, Quadt-Cityans may call the "Y," 876-7200.

Bazaar to benefit retarded children

The Flippertail C.B. Club will hold its annual bazaar and rummage sale Oct. 11-13 at 2441 Bryan Ave.

All proceeds will go to the Retarded Children's Association of the Quad-City area.

A wide variety of new and used items will be offered. The event will be held from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Joe Buchesky is president of the club. Bazaar chairman is Joyce Kojak.

TRANSFER OFFICER
Southern Illinois University Chancellor Kenneth A. Shaw announced Thursday the impending transfer of George L. Criminger from the position of governmental relations officer in the office of the chancellor to the position of special assistant to the vice-president for university relations at SIU at Carbondale.

Operatic audition deadline

Eleventh annual district auditions of the Metropolitan Opera National Council auditions program are scheduled in October at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The auditions program is the SIUE department of music, said the deadline for applications is Oct. 5.

Candidates for qualified candidates from Southern Illinois will be held in the Communications Building beginning at 3 p.m. Oct. 26. The most promising contestants will be selected to compete against other district audition winners from the central region.

Regional semifinals and finals will be held at the Opera House in St. Louis, Nov. 5-6. The winner of the regional finals will be sent to New York at National Council auditions to compete in the national semifinals on March 16, 1980; winners from 16 regions will audition before the general managers and his artistic staff on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House.

Cosponsoring the Southern Illinois event are the SIUE Friends of Music, with Mrs. Maurice Dailey and Mrs. Gene Sternberg acting as co-chairmen.

Applicants for the auditions must have been a resident or studied in the Southern Illinois district for the past 12 months and be within the following age limits throughout the period from Oct. 1979 to April 15, 1980: sopranos, 20-30 years of age; mezzos and contraltos, 20-30; tenors, 20-32; baritones, 20-32; and basses, 20-35. No age waivers will be granted, Tarwater said.

Contestants must be prepared to sing a minimum of five arias, in more than one language and of contrasting style. The contestants will be permitted to sing the aria of their choice, after which the judges may request a different type of aria for the purpose of comparison, Tarwater said.

Contestants are encouraged to provide their own accompaniment. If this is not possible, an accompanist will be provided upon request, Tarwater said.

The event will pay an entry fee of $10. District awards consist of three cash awards of $75. Auditionists must be sponsored by a school, college, music club or voice teacher.

Past auditionists may re-enter district auditions as new applicants. Past national semifinalists may re-enter the auditions at the district level. However, no contestant may win a regional first place more than once.

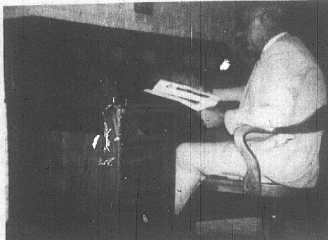

Application forms and other information may be obtained by contacting William Tarwater at 692-3900.

Venice continues faculty negotiations

The Venice Board of Education and Venice Teachers Local 965 are continuing negotiations to reach a new working agreement, with the next joint meeting set Tuesday night.

"We have always had a good relationship in negotiating with our staff and I believe this feeling continues now," Superintendent Robert N. Vickers commented after Thursday's meeting of the Venice School Board.

The administrator said the district's dismal financial situation is the key problem, as the money issues go on. "Our teachers are well aware of these problems," he added.

The Venice teachers started the 1979-80 school year Aug. 27, despite the absence of a new contract.

Negotiating sessions have been continuing throughout the intervening month.

At Thursday night's board meeting, Board President Jack Tolliver asked members and visitors to offer a moment of silent prayer in memory of the late Elvers "Billy" Johnson, a member of the Madison Board of Education.

Mr. Johnson, 58, died Sunday, Sept. 27, while speaking at an East St. Louis church.

The board members were invited to attend a ceremony at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, when a Presidential citation will be presented to Gary Skaggs, a teaching assistant.

Skaggs is a double amputee, having lost both legs in Vietnam when a landmine exploded.

The young man is employed as a teaching assistant through the CETA program, which is having financial problems in the funding of workers.

Gary's last day will be tomorrow (Friday, Sept. 28), but we are hoping that some means can be found to keep him on the job," Vickers said.

In other business, the board authorized Connie Davis, a teacher's aide, to act as sponsor and chaperone for the grade school cheerleaders, after it was learned none of the teaching staff would accept the responsibilities involved.

No candidates were proposed by members to fill a vacancy on the board left by the resignation of Gerald Cicio.

A candidate must be appointed by the local board at its Oct. 11 session to meet a 30-day deadline.

Should the vacancy not be filled by that date, the responsibility for the appointment rests upon the superintendent of the educational region.

Vickers said Duane Rankin, Venice-Lincoln administrator, called from Springfield to advise an appropriation bill had been signed by the governor which includes funds for operation of the adult education center for the current fiscal year.

After formal notification of the bill's approval, any outstanding notices of honorable dismissal sent to Venice teachers last March can be rescinded, the superintendent said.

YMCA to offer quilting class

The Tri-City Area YMCA has announced it will offer a quilting class this fall, beginning Oct. 11. The class will be taught by Augusta Lampe, and will meet on Thursdays from 9-11 a.m. for four weeks.

Those interested in learning more about the class should call the "Y," 876-7200. The fee for the class is the cost of materials only for Y-members and $4 plus the cost of materials for non-members.

WOMAN INJURED
Helen King, 63, of 1117 Market St., Venice, was treated and released from St. Elizabeth Medical Center after an auto accident Thursday at 3:55 p.m. Mrs. King said she was southbound on Edwardsville Road north of 13th Street, slowed for traffic and was struck in the rear by a hit and run motorist.

STUDENTS INDUCTED INTO HONOR GROUP
The Rev. Dr. Max L. Martin, pastor of Nameoki Methodist Church, has announced that four students have been inducted into the Society of Distinguished American High School Students.

Students inducted are Nita Graham, Timothy Bernack, Beverly Teller and John Barden. The Society cited their "demonstrated excellence in scholastic leadership and civic achievement."

The national awards program is sponsored by 60 colleges across the country.

Polish, Slav music, dances

An evening of music featuring music and dances traditional to several ethnic groups in this metropolitan area will be held Friday.

Sponsored by the Office of Special Programs and the Polish and East European Friends at SIUE, the program is scheduled in the Communications Building theater at 8 p.m. Tickets are $2 per person.

Three university-based groups will perform, including a Polish cultural group, a Yugoslavia culture group, and the East St. Louis Performing Arts Training Center ensemble.

During the evening, plans will be discussed for strengthening the continuation of ethnic and traditional customs in the area.

Mark Sarich, a graduate student in anthropology and behavioral science with a concentration in ethnic studies, said an East European cultural committee will concentrate on programs relating to the performance and preservation of traditional ethnic music and dance forms.

The Polish and Yugoslav groups have been invited to perform at the national assembly of the Society of Ethnic and Special Studies at Los Angeles in October. This national society, organized at SIUE several years ago, is dedicated to the development and operation of educational programs for minority groups and to the preservation of native ethnic mores, customs and traditions.

Women's Awareness class at 'Y' begins Oct. 10

"Women's Awareness" will continue this fall at the Tri-City Area YMCA with the first meeting scheduled Oct. 10. The workshop will meet from 7-9 p.m. Wednesday evenings for six weeks and is open to all women in the area. There is a $2.50 fee for the complete workshop.

For more information or to register for the workshop, call Lucy Tueth at the "Y," 876-7200. The "Y" is located at 2001 Edison Avenue in Granite City.

Dal Maxvill to speak

Former Granite Cityan Dal Maxvill, once a shortstop for the St. Louis Cardinals and now a coach with that club, will speak at the father and son banquet Oct. 16 at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, 20th Street and Delmar Avenue.

The banquet is being sponsored by Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, First United Presbyterian Church and St. Peter's Evangelical United Church of Christ.

Maxvill, who appeals to all ages, has several stories to relate concerning the baseball world.

The public is invited to attend, according to the Rev. David Maxton, pastor at First United Presbyterian Church. The event will take place at 6:30 p.m.

Reservations will be taken on a first come, first serve basis, and may be made by calling one of the church offices at 876-6812, 877-4555, or 877-1904.

opportunity to learn more about themselves and those around them," said Elaine Svezia, the program's coordinator. She said that the workshop will feature guest speakers, films and different topics for discussion each week.

The program coordinator has a master's degree in higher education from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale and has been active in women's programs and assertiveness training both in Carbondale and the Granite City area.

For more information or to register for the workshop, call Lucy Tueth at the "Y," 876-7200. The "Y" is located at 2001 Edison Avenue in Granite City.
